Town Clerk.

PREFACE.

In preparing these Records for the press, the undersigned have carefully tried to make copies as correct and exact as possible, retaining the original capitals, spelling and punctuation. Abstracts of deeds of land recite the facts and omit the useless tautology of covenants, and the record of ear-marks recite all essential facts which the records specify, including date of record, name of party transferring and to whom transferred. In all cases the residence of parties and witness was in this town, unless otherwise stated; and it is specially stated when they resided elsewhere. All abstracts are carefully noted as such and omit nothing thought to shed light on the historic or genealogical facts recited in the originals.

Some documents in each volume are printed out of their chronological order, being selected from the files unrecorded in the Town Clerk's office, because of their historic value, and so printed because the extent of this work was, at its commencement, undetermined, rendering such selection uncertain and unchronological, in preference to their entire omission.

The undersigned in submitting to their fellow-Townsmen the results of their labors, cannot withhold their tribute of grateful praise that the liberality of the Town has rendered it practicable to print three volumes of its Records and thereby permanently preserve them as history rescued from possible destruction or oblivion. And they express the hope that this pioneer example will be followed by like efforts in other Towns of this County whose records are coeval with the first English settlements of the colony and State and abound in the richest and rarest authorities for the Antiquarian Genealogist and Historian.

Explanation of Map.

The first settlement was at Old Town, and the houses were probably of a temporary nature. The present Town street, of which the plan is given, was laid out in 1648, and called the "Town Plot."

The dates given are the times when the owners came in possession.

A note of interrogation after a date, thus, (1760 ?), denotes that the person was in actual possession at that time, but who he obtained it of, and when, is unknown, and there is a missing link which cannot be supplied from our present information.

The places marked A, B, C, are too small for insertion of names and are here described.

(A) This is part of the old Edward Howell lot. It was owned by Henry Herrick before 1782; from him went to Wm. Herrick; left by him to son Wm. P. Herrick, 1825. After his death it was bought by Capt. Philetus Peirson.

(B) Now home lot of Josiah Foster, originally part of Richard Post's home lot, (now Charles Howell). Richard Post sells to John Gould a piece in N. W. corner of lot, two rods wide, four rods long, 1686; by him sold to Walter Melvin, 1692; he sold to Samuel Butler, 1697; sold by him to Rob. Patton, 1700; sold by executors of Rob. Patton to Obadiah Smith, 1704, who in 1705 bought south part of what is now lot of Benj. H. Foster; since then it has been part of Foster's lot.

(C) Homestead of late Peter Fournier; part of old Francis Sayre lot; left by him to son Thomas Sayre, 1694; by him to nephew Thomas, and sold by him to Abraham Howell, 1720; left by him to wife Patience; left by her to Elias Foster, 1756; by him to son Elias, 1785; sold to Elias Pelletreau about 1812; by him sold to Wm. S. Pelletreau, 1822; by him to Henry Green, 1825; by him to Peter Fournier, 1830.

TO THE MEMORY OF
CHRISTOPHER FOSTER,
TOWN CLERK FROM 1717 TO 1742,

The faithful chronicler of a quarter of a century of eventful years. While the date of his death is uncertain, and we know not his place of burial, he has left upon the written page a monument more lasting than the sculptured stone.

INTRODUCTION.

The Revolution of 1686 had been productive of untold good, not only to the people of England but to the scattered dwellers in her far off Colonies. At the time of the commencement of our volume, the town had remained for more than thirty years in the full and peaceable enjoyment of the privileges granted by the Patent of Gov. Dongan. Still continuing as it had ever been, a country within itself, the wars that shook Europe with the thundering tread of armies, were known only by reports that came as from a far off world. United by the artificial bonds of politics to the Province of New-York, but joined by all the ties of affection and sympathy to the Colony of Connecticut, it remained during the long years that preceded the Revolution, a fragment of New England dropped upon Long Island shores.

In May, 1702, Queen Anne of England, the Emperor of Germany and the States General, united in a declaration of war against France and Spain. This involved the Colonies of two mighty powers in a series of struggles that lasted for more than half a century. The slight interruptions in this mighty conflict were but preparation for a more deadly contest, and might well be called, in the language of Tacitus, "cessations of war rather than a commencement of peace." For all the English settlements on the main land, this was a period of almost ceaseless terror, death lurked upon the frontier, and fearful is the list of villages burned and inhabitants massacred by a foe against which no vigilance could guard, and whose presence was felt when least expected; but terrible as was this state of things, it was the school in which the American Colonies were drilled and prepared for that greater struggle for their own independence. At length, sudden and unexpected changes in European affairs turned the scale in favor of England, and a definitive treaty of peace in 1762 was the close of the bloody and eventful period known in our history as the "old French war."

But so far as the Long Island villages were concerned, the war was as if it had never been; Southampton never knew a more peaceful period than the time that filled her sister Colonies with terror and alarm, and if this can be called an uninteresting and uneventful era, it is only because the times that furnish the most stirring events for novelist, poet and historian, are those in which human happiness is most endangered, and human life least secure, and it may be said of communities as it has been said of nations, "the happiest are those that have no history."

The most important local event that occurred during that period, was the settling of the western part of the town. As has been stated in a former volume, that portion west of Canoe Place was purchased from its Aboriginal owners in 1666, and the controversy between the Town and Capt. Thomas Topping was decided by a reference to Richard Nicoll, Governor of the Province; but so far as regarded an actual settlement, it remained in its wilderness state for more than fifty years. The first settlement was probably at Onuck, where Isaac Halsey had a house as early as 1730. In 1732, Hezekiah Howell and Jonathan Raynor were living at Ketchaponack, and the various communities had grown to such an extent that parsonage land was laid out for the western parish in 1742, and a house of worship was probably erected as early as 1750. There was a mill at Beaverdam before 1748. Jonathan Jagger had fixed his residence at Tamer's Neck at the same date, and the familiar names of Bower, Rogers and Halsey appear as actual settlers in that neighborhood before the middle of the last century. Such was the beginning of those villages now so noted for thrift and prosperity, and long may the descendants of the Southampton families continue their ancestral names in the enjoyment of fertile fields which they rescued from the wilderness.

So long as the population of the town was almost entirely confined to the village of Southampton, all goods and stores from abroad were landed at North Sea, as the most convenient port, but when in process of time the population of Sagaponack and Meacox had become quite numerous, it was necessary to find some nearer port of landing, and thus save much of the time and labor in transporting their goods. This was the origin of Sag-Harbor, which was called for many years "Sagaponack harbor," and in bills of lading as late as 1760, was called "the Harbor of Sagg." The exact time at which a permanent settlement was made at this place is unknown. The first intimation of it is in 1745, when a Mr. Russell* is mentioned as having a house on what is now the site of the Railroad depot. A store-house and tan-yard were established by John Foster in 1756. Nathan Fordham seems to have been a dweller there as early as 1755, and this may be considered as the period of the settlement; up to that time the only land at Sag-Harbor that was of any value were the salt grass meadows which lined the shore of the bay. In 1768 the village had increased to such an extent that a meeting house was erected, and then, with the whale fishery and trade with the West Indies, began a long series of years of prosperity, interrupted only by the troubles of the Revolution.

In the religious history of the Town, during the period embraced in our volume, the most remarkable events are the change in form of Church government, from Congregationalism to Presbyterianism, and the rise, progress and decline of the "New light movement." The former seems to have been the result of a call to Rev. Samuel Gelston to become the successor of Rev. Joseph Whiting, who, after a pastorate of more than thirty years, died in 1716. It is quite probable that the call to Mr. Gelston was to some extent owing to the influence of his brother Hugh, who had been for some years a resident of the place, and seems to have held a high social position from the first, and afterwards held the office of County Judge, and other places of honor and trust. In the call to Mr. Gelston, the people of Southampton agree to "subject themselves to the Presbytery in the Lord." The Church at Bridge-Hampton appears to have adopted the same relation at nearly the same time, and the new form of Church government then established has continued unchanged till the present day.

In the year 1740 a most wonderful revival of religion occurred in New England, and from its wide extent and overwhelming power, has been justly distinguished by the name of the "Great Awakening." This out-burst of religious interest extended to the Churches on Long Island. As the religious persecutions which brought our fathers to these shores, had long since been a thing of the past, and was known to the succeeding generations only as a dim tradition, so also the deep religious spirit brought with them had ceased to be the great moving power of the community, and there is too much evidence that the deep and vital sentiment had degenerated into a tame formality, and religion, which to the fathers had been the breath of life, to the sons was but a lifeless thing. To breathe the breath of life into these dry bones came the preaching of Whitefield. If we can judge anything from the testimony of those who listened to his glowing words, his eloquence must have exceeded anything since the days of the Apostles; and although far removed from the scenes of his greatest labors, yet still his influence was felt even to these distant villages, as the stone cast into a lake creates a ripple that reaches to its farthest shore. But into the revival as manifested in the Church at Bridge-Hampton, there was introduced a new and extraordinary element. Rev. James Davenport, who was settled as pastor in Southold, 1738, according to his biographer, "became satisfied that God had revealed to him that His kingdom was coming with great power, and that he had an extraordinary call to labor for its advancement." Acting upon this belief he proceeded to the wildest acts of enthusiasm, and soon produced in himself and his followers a state of things that might well be called half religion and half insanity. Such was the origin and the nature of the "New Light movement." In the opinion of these enthusiasts the religious progress of their brethren in the Church was too slow for them. The aged pastor, Rev. Ebenezer White, who was soon to retire from a faithful and laborious service of fifty years, was denounced as a "hindrance on the road to glory." A schism was soon made, a separate church formed, and a small house of worship erected in 1748. The evil effects of this movement lasted till 1800, although many of the new congregation returned to the old fold, yet enough still remained to keep up a separate organization under the ministry of Rev. Elisha Paine, who died in 1775, but the early enthusiasm had died out and their numbers decreased as time went on, until the few that remained returned to the Church they had left, in the early part of the present century.

At this distant period we can form no true opinion as to the real motives or the true character of the founders of the new church, but whoever at this time attempts to recount this episode of our religious history must not forget that the picture of the "New Light movement" has been painted by its enemies. Their greatest mistake was in yielding to the delusions of enthusiasm, and their gravest error was in believing that they could not be as holy and as pure in the church as out of it.

When the congregation ceased to exist the church building was sold and converted into a dwelling, and when we saw it last, children were playing at the door, where once sincere men and women had entered with the faith deep rooted in their hearts, that what they had done was in accordance with the command of God, "Come forth from the world and be ye separate."

Rev. Ebenezer White and Rev. James Brown, under whose ministry the above events had transpired, had passed away from earth, leaving precious memories behind.*

Next comes the Revolution. As the general history of that mighty struggle is familiar to all, it only remains for us to recount the local events of minor interest. At the beginning of the strife the town of Southampton was not behind her sister towns in patriotic ardor, and in preparation for the war. A committee of safety was appointed whose first labor was to make a complete census of the town.† Militia companies were formed in the villages of South and Bridge-Hampton. The 1st Company of the Regiment, commanded by Col. Oliver Smith, was formed in the town, another with Capt. John Hulbert at its head, was on the march to join the regiment, when the whole command was met by the news of the disastrous result of the battle of Long Island. The Regiment and Companies were at once disbanded. Men who had been most prominent in advocating the cause of independence fearing for the result, took instant measures for removing their families to Connecticut. Permits were granted for this purpose by the Committee of Safety. The wharf at Sag-Harbor was crowded with emigrants. British troops were quartered in the different villages. Sir Wm. Erskine, the British General, had his headquarters in Southampton. Houses left vacant by the refugees were immediately appropriated to the use of the soldiery, and during the remainder of the war the inhabitants were cut off from affording any open aid to the cause of freedom; yet still a clandestine communication was kept with the people and places on the main land, and a part of the unwritten history of the Revolution, a part to which we hope some future historian will do justice, is the romantic events connected with what has been called "the whale boat warfare." These light craft, easily transported for short distances on land, and capable, when urged by vigorous arms, of making rapid speed over the waters, were frequently manned by crews perfectly familiar with their use, and well acquainted with every nook and corner of the Long Island coast, and proceeding from the Connecticut shore, across the sound, and making a portage across the northern branch of the Island to Peconic bay, and another at the narrow isthmus of Canoe Place, they would proceed for miles up the bays on the south side, and the first intimation of their presence would be some British out-post suddenly attacked when thoughtless of danger near, or some prominent Tory surprised in his house, or a vessel boarded while lying at anchor in fancied security; and having accomplished their errand they would depart the way that they come, with a secrecy that eluded discovery, and a swiftness that defied all pursuit.

* The tomb stone of Rev. Ebenezer White may still be seen in the Sagg burying ground. The remains of Rev. James Brown rest in the sadly neglected burying ground at Scuttle Hole, and as his tomb stone there is exposed to many chances of destruction, we copy here its inscription.

The years that succeeded the Revolution found the Town, as regards prosperity, at its lowest ebb. The refugees who returned found their property destroyed, the land had lost much of its original fertility, and the improved methods of agriculture of modern times were not known ; the whale fishery which afterwards was such a source of wealth was in its infancy ; many of the most energetic citizens went to found new settlements in other parts of the State, and in 1804, Dr. Dwight, President of Yale College, in his tour through the Island, thus records the impressions he derived from what he saw : "Southampton is said to have been formerly a flourishing settlement. At present it bears the aspect of decline. Some of the houses are better than any in East Hampton, but the general appearance is less agreeable and prosperous, the town is less compactly built," and he adds, unkindest cut of all, "the inhabitants are said to be less industrious." But could the venerable Doctor re-visit the places of which he formed so unfavorable an opinion, we venture to think his opinion would be changed, and a more flattering verdict rendered.

Arrived at the conclusion of our task, we cannot but be grateful to our fellow citizens for the liberality with which they have begun, and carried on the work. And we return our sincere thanks to all who have aided us in its completion, by word or deed ; and we lay down our pen, thankful that it has been our privilege to add our mite to the sum of the world's knowledge, glad that we have been able to rescue from oblivion the memorials of a noble race, and the records of a time that has long since passed away.

PAGE 124. [Abstract.] Jeremiah Jagger Samuel Jagger and Nathaniel Howell agree to divide our lot at Paugenquake Lot 38, Jeremiah Jagger hath 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ 50, Samuel Jagger one 50, and Nathaniel Howell 1 50 and we began at the stake between our lot and Stephen Herriek at the bottom and from said stake we marked a range of trees at the head of the branches north to the fence or cross highway which runs across said neck, and then we divided all the land between said branches to the westward of said range into 4 lots, and did conclude ye line between each mans land to the westward of said range shall run as the branches run, but the dividing line between each mans land to the eastward of said range is to run upon a direct east line to Stephen Herricks lot, and then we cast lots and Jeremiah Jaggers half lot fell in the two middle lots, Samuel Jaggers fifty and Nathaniel Howells half fifty fell the two outside lots, and then Samuel and Nathaniel cast lots between them and Samuel Jaggers 50 fell on each side of Jeremiah Jaggers half lot, and at the top or northward part of said lot running to the fence or highway, across the neck, To which all agree Jan 30 1743

[Abstract.] Thomas Jessup and John Howell agree to divide the south part of their lot in Great South Division lying at a place called great Sandy Hollow No 47, and proceed as follows, First we laid two lots beginning at the south end which butts upon the road that leads to Seponack and run northward along by Jonah Howells and John Reeves fence until we come something to the northward of the middle of said Sandy hollow and then we marked J H upon the fence and so run across the said lot of land upon an easterly line till we come to Capt Whites lot, and then divided this south end of said lot into two parts, the equal half in quantity to ly on ye west side next to ye said Jonah Howells lot and the other equal half to ly on the east side of said lot next to Capt Whites lot, and John Howell has the west side, and Thomas Jessup the east, then we laid out two more lots to run from said cross line in Sandy Hollow northward along the line between Capt Whites lot and our lot till it comes to the road leading to North sea which road was laid out by the Commissioners, and then we run westward across the lot until it comes to Jonah Howells lot of land, and then South along the line between our lot and Jonah Howells lot till we come to the above said cross line, and we divided this northward part into two lots, and we did agree that John Howell shall have the east half, and Thomas Jessup the west half. The rest of the lot we leave undivided. May 31 1744.

PAGE 106. Southampton May the 19th, 1738. An account of the laying out of the lower Division in Quaga purchase. We Isaac Halsey John Howell and Stephen Herrick who were ordered by the trustees of said town to hire a surveyor, and to lay out the vndivided lands in said town, therefore we together with Nathaniel Dommony junior of East hampton do proseed as followeth, First to lay out the vndivided lands in Quaganantuck Purchas and the first division was on the south side of said purchas in the necks that were vndivided, We began at Little Wouonck and laid out an highway on the east side thereof from the head down the neck four poles wide adjoining to the swamp on the east side of said neck vntill it comes to the lot of vpland lying at the bottom of said neck No 1, and the first lot of vpland lying at the bottom of said Little Wouonck neck Running upward to a stake on the east side and another stake on the west side of said neck marked on the south side of each stake with No 1 and on the north side of said stakes with No 2, containing 12 acres of land: And the second lot of vpland lies adjoining to the first lot running still vpward vnto a stake on each side of the neck or vpland marked with No. 2 on the lower sides thereof, and on the north side of said stakes with No. 3, containing 13 acres of land; And the 3d lot lies adjoining to the second lot running still vp the neck vnto a stake on each side thereof marked No. 3 on the south side of each stake and on the north side with No. 4, containing 14 acres. The 4th lot lies adjoining to the 3d lot Running northward vp the said neck to a stake on each side of the vpland marked with No. 4 on the south sides thereof and No. 5 on the north side of said stakes containing 14 acres. The 5th lot lies adjoining to the 4th lot running northward vp the neck to a stake on each side of the neck or vpland with No. 5 on the south side thereof and No 6 on ye north sides of said stakes containing 15 acres. The 6th lot lies adjoining to the 5th lot running northward vp the neck to a stake on each side of the neck or vpland with No 6 on the south side thereof and No 7 on the north side of said stakes, the east stake standing above the branch, containing 20 acres. The 7th lot lies adjoining to ye 6th lot Running still northward vp said neck to a tree marked with No 7 on the west side of said neck, on the south side of said tree, which is ye north west corner of said lot, and so Running over eastward vnto a tree marked on the south side with No 7, a considerable way above the head of the east branch of said neck, which is the north east corner of said lot and the last lot of vpland in Little Wonuck containing 31 acres of vpland. And then we proceed to lay out the meadow in said Little Wonuck neck which is as followeth, the first lot of meadow belonging to the first lot of vpland which is No 1 lies on each side of the said lot of vpland about $\frac{3}{4}$ of an acre on the west side of said neck, Running from the bottom of said neck northward to a stake marked No 1 on the south side thereof, and No 2 on the north side of said stake, and the rest of the meadow belonging to No 1 lies on the East side of said neck Running from the bottom of said neck northward to a stake or tree by the vpland marked No. 1 on the south side and No 7 on the north side thereof and then Running eastward to the Creek of water that divides or lies between Great Wononk and Little Wononk to a stake standing by the said Creek marked No 1 on the South side thereof, and the north side with No 7, all containing 4 acres $\frac{1}{2}$ of meadow, and all the rest of meadow lying on the east side of said Little Wononk from No 1 Running northward up to the swamp which is 8 acres of meadow and is to be and remain to the lot No. 1. And the 2nd lot of meadow belonging to the lot of vpland No 2 lies on the west side of said neck adjoining to No. 1, Running northward to a stake by the west side of the vpland marked on the south side with No 2, with a witness thus C. on the north side with No. 3, then running westward to the creek or River which divides

PAGE 167.] or lies between Appocock and the said Little Wonnok to a stake by the side of said creek marked on the South side with No 2, with the said witness on the north side with No 3, including all ye Southwest point of said meadow containing 4 acres and a quarter of meadow. The third lot of meadow belonging to the 3d lot of vpland lies adjoining to the second lot of meadow Running still northward up the said neck to a stake by the side of the vpland marked No 3 on the South side thereof with the said witness and No 4 on the north side, from thence running westward to a stake by the side of said Creek marked with No 3 on the south side thereof with the above said witness, and No 4 on the north side, containing four acres and a half of meadow. The 4th lot of meadow belonging to the 4th lot of vpland lies adjoining to the 3d lot of meadow still running northward up the neck to a stake standing by the side of the vpland marked with No 4 on the south side with the said witness, and on the north side with No. 5, running thence westward to a stake by the side of the above said Creek marked with No. 4 on the south side thereof with the said witness, and No 5 on the north side containing 5 acres of meadow. The 5th lot of meadow belonging to the 5th lot of vpland lies adjoining to the 4th lot of meadow Running northward up the said neck to a stake standing on the west side of the upland marked with No 5 on the south side thereof with the said witness, and No 6 on the north side of said stake, and Running from thence westward to a stake standing by the above said Creek, marked with No 5, with the said witness on the south side thereof, and No 6 on the north side containing 6 acres of meadow. The sixth lot of meadow belonging to the sixth lot of upland lies adjoining to the fifth lot of meadow still running northward up said neck to a stake standing by the west side of the vpland marked with No 6 on the south side thereof with the said witness, and No 7 on the north side of said stake, Running from thence westward to a stake standing by ye said Creek marked with No 6 with the said witness on the south side thereof and No 7 on the North side of said stake containing 8 acres of meadow. The 7th lot of meadow which belongs to the 7th lot of vpland lies part of it adjoining to No 6 Running northward up to the Northwest corner tree of the lot of vpland No 7, including all the meadow from said tree to the north side of the lot No 6, containing 5 acres and $\frac{1}{2}$ of meadow, and also 8 acres of meadow lying on the East side of Little Wononck adjoining to the lot of meadow No 1, Running up northward to the swamp, is to lie to the lot of vpland No 7 and is divided from No 1 by two stakes one by the Creek the other by the vpland marked on the North side No 7.

And then we laid out two lots in short neck or third neck which is as followeth, one on the west side of said neck containing 25 acres being No 8, and No 9 lies on the east side of said neck adjoining to No 8 containing 26 acres, And then we proceeded to Rampasture in Poganquogue and laid out an highway from the head of the long cove down to Rampasture neck on the east side of said neck until it comes to the lower highway that runs across said neck which said highways are four poles wide, and then we laid out an highway from the head of the long cove Running directly across Poganquogue neck to the second lot on the east side of said neck No 26, which highway is to be six poles wide, and then we laid out an highway near the middle of said neck to the eastward of the Good ground running from Quaganantuck road down the said neck unto the aforesaid highway that runs across the said neck
PAGE 168.] which is to be six poles wide, and then we laid out seven lots in the bottom of the Rampasture neck butting up to the highway running across the said neck, and the Lot No 10 lies on the west side adjoining to the water, six poles and a half wide at the north end and 12 poles at the south end containing 14 acres together with an amendment No 10 which is the second lot above the lower highway lying on the west side of said neck butting to the middle highway containing 71 acres, the west end of said lot bounded by the water. And lot No 11 lies adjoining to No 10 and is 14 poles wide at the north end and 21 poles at the south end and it contains 15 acres, together with an amendment No 11 which is the third lot above the lower highway on the west side of said neck butting to ye middle highway Running westward to Tiannah water, containing 71 acres. And the lot No 12 lies adjoining to No 11 and is 10 poles wide at the north end and 28 poles at the south end contains 16 acres, together with an amendment which lies to the 4th lot No 12 above the lower highway on the west side of said neck butting to the middle highway running westward to Tiannah water, containing 69 acres. And the lot No 13 lies adjoining to the lot No 12 and is 10 poles wide at the north end and 28 at the south end containing 16 acres, together with an amendment No 13 lies adjoining to the amendment No 12 on the west side of said neck butting to the middle highway running westward down to Tiannah water containing 77 acres. PAGE 203. Southampton December ye 26 1748. Whereas we Thomas Sandford Junr and Abraham Halsey Being appointed and authorized by the Trustees to lay out a certain tract or parcel of land and meadow into 49 Lots Quantity & Quality Equall according to the Best of our understanding. Bounded northwardly by Moriches path West by Setuk Brook & River Southwardly by the Bay & the Land formerly laid out Eastwardly by Apocock River. And according to the power given us and the trust reposed in us, we proceeded to Lay out ye above sd land and Meadow in the following manner, (vis) We Began at Setuek with No 1 Increasing Eastward to No 49 along by the south side of Moriches path which 49 lots run down the three necks; No 1 on the west side is bounded with a stake standing a small distance from ye east side of the swamps marked with No 1 on the east side thereof and so runs down the neck adjoining to the Meadow on the west side, and to No 2 on the E side, and the reason why this lot doth not ly to the brook for its W bounds, is because the stream is reserved for a Mill, but as long as there is no Mill or mill pond there, the lot No 1 may adjoin to the Brook, but it shall and may be lawfull for the town, or any by their authority to set a Mill upon that stream, make a Dam and raise a pond on any part of the said lot No 1, and it shall not be accounted any tresspass on the said lot and also dig earth to make and maintain a Dam in any parts of sd lot at any time or times hereafter. And the above said 49 lots run down the above said three necks where each lot is bounded by stakes or trees marked and numbered, Beginning with No 2, increasing eastward to No 49, which No 49 lies on the east of the neck called the Basket Neck ; and after we had laid out the above said 49 lots of upland we laid out 49 Lots of meadow which are to be drawn with the 49 lots of upland, and each lot of meadow hath the same number with the lot of upland to which it belong. But only on the middle neck and in the east of Basket neck the lots of upland are witnessed with the letter N. But the lots of meadow in the above said necks have no such witness, neither is there any such Distinguishing character between the lots of meadow and upland in Setuck neck.

We began with No 1 of meadow on the west side of Setuck increasing round the neck to No 7, and on the N side of No 7 and adjoining to it we laid an amendment to the lot No 1 and PAGE 204] marked the stake with No 1, and all the meadows northward of sd amendment to the Going over of the River on the W side of the same lies for amendments to the lots No 2 & No 3, and then we proceeded to lay out 16 lots of meadow in the second or middle neck to the 16 lots of upland in the said neck, Beginning on the W side of sd middle or second neck with No 8 increasing down to the bottom of the neck and so round the neck and up the east side to No 23, and northward of No 23 we laid an amendment to the lot No 8 and the remainder of the meadow on that side of the river up to the Swamps we laid for amendment to the lots No 10 & 11 and there being two small islands of meadow on the W side of sd neck near ye bottom of ye same, we laid to the lot No 9

And then we proceeded to lay out 27 lots of meadow to the 27 lots of upland in the last of basket neck beginning on the west side of said neck increasing southwardly to the bottom of the neck and so round the bottom and up the east side as far as there is any meadow, Beginning with No 24 and ending with No 38, and the lots No 19 & 20 are to have the several small islands of meadow that lie near the mouth of the gut or fishing creek at the S ward end of the great pond, and part of the Lot No 28 lies on the westward side of sd neck and the remainder of it on the eastward side within Capt Halseys fence & 38 is to have all the meadow N ward of the stake No 37, 38 up to the highway quite across the upland E ward.

And then we went to Speonk River, and we began at a stump (which is the bounds of the land formerly laid out) with No 39 increasing N ward to No 49, and the lot No 39 is to have the island called Jobes Island, and then we proceeded to lay out 49 amendments to the 49 lots, each amendment having the same No with the lot it belongs to, No 1 with No 1 No 2 with No 2, and so onward to No 49 with No 49, and the mendment No 1 lyes by Speonk River N ward of and adjoining to No 49; No 2 is N ward of No 1 and so increasing N ward to No 12, and there being a remainder of meadow N ward of No 12 by the side of said river which we laid to the 16 lots in the middle neck, & from said Speonk River we went to Tanners neck and Apocock and laid out the remainder of the above said 49 amendments, and amendment No 23 is to have all the meadow N ward of a tree marked with No 23 up to the swamps as far as there is or shall be any meadow and so over the brook into Apocock neck down to the stake No 23, 24, and Raynors fence is the south bounds of No 24, & also of No 25 on the other side of ye neck ; And No 49 is to have all the meadow N ward of the stake No 49 up to the bever dam, or as far as there is or shall be any meadow ; And there being some places where it is very difficult to set stakes next the water for bounds to the meadow therefore where there is but one stake for bounds for any lots of meadow or mendments, Such lots of meadow or mendments that ly E of the river's, shall run an W line into the river for its bounds, and such as lie W of the river shall run an E line down to the river for a dividing line between lot & lot. And after we had finished the 49 lots in the lower division and the 49 lots of meadow & 49 mendments, We proceeded to lay out 49 lots more of upland which we called the Upper Division, And we began at Moriches path with No 1 increasing E ward to No 49 by the Bever Dam, and No 1 lies E ward of No 49 in the Loer Division and adjoining to it, and No 2 lies E of No 1, and No 3 lies E of No 2, and so increasing to No 49 near the bever dam as above said, and all the lots in the upper division are bounded at the S end by the land which the Trustees lately sold to the several owners of ye necks, and bounded with stakes & trees numbered for that purpose ; but there is several corners that stand in the swamps as No 7 S in the Loer Division, stands on the E side of the brook just above the going over ; and No 23 24 in the Loer Division stands on the west side of the brook a little below the going over ; and No 19 20 is a maple spire standing in the swamp a little above the going over at Speonk River ; and No 41 42 is a large pine tree on the W side of tanuers neck swamp a considerable distance above the meadow ; and No 42 43 is a white oak tree in the edge of the swamp in apocock neck near the upper part of the meadow. And then we proceeded to lay out several highways in the sd tract of land for conveniency of watering and travellers to pass & repass or any other conveniencies PAGE 205] that may be needful; We laid a highway from the Bever Dam or going over at the mill of six pole wide to go from thence to the going over of Speonk River where the path now is, and from thence along the path to the head of the great swamp where there is a Red Oak tree marked with the letter H on the N side of the highway and a spire a little in the swamp on the S side of the highway marked also with the letter H; and from thence the same highway runs to the head of the Little Pond where the going over now is, where there is two stakes fixt and marked with the letter H, and this highway is to run as far W as the two above sd stakes and no farther; And then we laid a Road or highway from the going over to Setuck to the going over at the head of the Great Pond where there stands trees marked with the letter H for highway, and from thence it runs into the main road 30 pole to the E ward of Capt Halseys house; the above sd Main Road is the road that comes from the mill to the head of the Little Pond, and this road is the same breadth with the main road; And we laid a highway from this main road down to Capt Halseys house 4 rod wide and a passing road to Moriches path to begin in the little pond hollow & go to the most convenient place to go to Meriches; We also laid a highway on the E side of the Great Swamp from Silvanus's land up to the main road the S end is the same breadth with Silvanus Halseys land and the west side adjoins to Abraham Halseys land in the swamp and the E side is bounded by the W end of Stephen Roger's land & from his corner it runs upon a direct line to the main highway where it is six poles wide, and we laid a highway of six pole wide on the N and adjoining to the land which the Trustees sold to Stephen & David Rogers, and it runs from the above sd highway by the swamp across the neck within 3 pole of the meadow on the E side of the neck. We also laid a road or highway from the head of the great swamp across the neck down to the river for a watering on the E side of the neck, where we marked two pine trees with the letter H for highway, one on either side of the highway, and also a stake on either side of the highway in the meadow, for the meadow in the highway is not lotted, the sd highway is six pole wide at the W end by the swamp, and eight pole at the river. We also laid a passing road from David Rogers house up to the main road of four pole wide to go where the path now is, called Bowers path, And then we went to Tanners neck and laid a road across the south sid of the lots adjoining to the land the Trustees sold to Mr Jagger, running across the neck saving only what land is laid to the amendmets of meadow on each side of the neck, this road is six pole wide. And then we laid a road of six pole wide a little to the eastward of Thomas Halseys old house from the land formerly laid out, to come into the road that runs across the neck, and we also laid a road from the sd old house of 4 pole wide up to the brook for watering on the west side of the neck, where we marked two large white oak trees near the brook with the letter H for highway. And then we laid another highway in sd neck of 6 pole wide from Mr Jagers new house up to the Main Road where the path now goes but not to go through his land which the trustees sold him; and we laid a road of four poles wide which turns out of the aforesaid road a little above the bottom of the swamp for a watering on the E side of the neck and it runs down into the brook across the Cranbery marsh where we marked tree's with the letter H to manifest where the highway goes into the swamp. And then we laid a highway across the bottom of Apocock neck, 6 pole wide by Rayners fence but round the land the Trustees sold him, Runing E & W as far as the land which is laid to the amendmets of meadow on each side of the neck. And we laid another highway from the mill of 6

pole wide to go down the neck where the path now is, southward bearing, while it comes into the road that runs across the neck. And we laid a road from Raynors fence up along the E side of the neck to a spring for water where we marked a large pine tree on the S side of the highway with the leter H, and a black oak on the N. This road is 6 pole wide, and the E side of the road is to be bounded by the W side of the two pole wide of land that is laid to the amendment of meadow, But if one or more of the several highways or roads which we PAGE 206] have laid out in any part of this division shall hereafter be found really inconvenient and prejudicial, then it shall and may be lawfull for the Trustees or the major part of them being at least Ten with the consent of the Commissioners for the time being to shut up, sell, and dispose of the said highways at their discretion. And we laid out three pole wide of upland across the end of every lot and amendment of meadow that lies by the side of Speonk River, excepting where the trustees sold land to David & Stephen Rogers for their land is bounded E by the meadow, and this three pole wide of upland shall be from the top of the Clift, but in Tanners neck and Apocock we laid but two pole wide of upland across the end of each lot and amendment of meadow. And we left one acre of land not laid out near the end of the Mill Dam in the most convenient place for making and maintaining a mill dam which said acre of land lies within the bounds of lot No 49, but is not laid to sd lot, but is left for the use above mentioned. And whereas the several lots and amendments of Meadow are far distant from the lots of upland where they belong, therefore it shall and may be lawful for any of the owners of any of the several lots or upland to go, cart, ride, and drive threwh any of the said lots of upland or meadow to their several lots of meadow or amendments wherever they may be, and they may cut and make paths through the brush to go to their meadow from time to time and at any time or times hereafter. But if any dispute shall arise concerning persons cutting or making more roads than is needful for them to go to their respective lots or amendments of meadow in manner as above said, or concerning going through grain or any other thing of like nature. In such case it shall & may be lawful for the grieved party to make application to the Trustees for the time being, and it shall be lawful for them to appoint a man to make inspection into that matter on the charge of the grieved party, and his determination shall be a final issue of the whole matter. And the highway that leads from the head of the great swamp to the going over of Speonk River may be run straight from the head of the Great Swamp to a knole of Good Land that lies a little to the N ward of an arm of the swamp which comes to the path near the N end of the meadow by Speonk River at the most convenient place. And further more it shall be lawful for any person to go through the land that the trustees have sold to David Rogers, to cut, cart, and make their hay at any time or times hereafter. We also laid a passing road from Jonathan Jaggars house to go into the main road at Brushy Neck Hollow; and so we compleated the Division.

Memorandum. It is to be understood that the land that is said to be laid across the lots and amendments of meadow belong to the meadow where it lies.

[We have measured out that on the north side of his house and there is 5 acres and 20 poles, we began at the west side of ye well and run ten poles west, and North 30 poles to his north lot fence, and then east till it comes into ye other highway, then we began at the south side of the well and laid the highway at the entering in to the southward 9 poles and 3 feet, and so it runs straight to Whites norwest corner and cuts off 18 poles of Whites lot, then we run from the southwest corner of the highway east to Henry Ludlams fence leaving him a large highway to his land, then northward by Whites lot up to the old highway.]

Southampton May 12 1775 Wee George Herrick David Howell & William Rogers Commissioners being desired to examine a highway from Ogdens Creek to Assup neck, we laid a highway across Capt Rogers land lying South east ward of the little Blacksmith shop to Capt Stephens land, and then across his land to the highway coming from Ogdens Creek above said. Note we laid the highway two rods wide.

PAGE 286. [Abstract.] Jackson Scott and Elias Pelletue having a lot at head of creek in partnership divide the same it being 16 acres and 6 rods, it is divided by David Halsey and Stephen Rogers into two equal parts north and south, and Jackson Scott gave Elias Pelletue eight pounds for the choice and took the north side, which is to be to him and his heirs and assigns, and Elias Pelletue is to have the south part. March 26 1761.

That whereas we Josiah Pierson and Thomas Sandford being Elected and chosen by the trustees of the town of Southampton to lay out or lot a certain tract of land lying near to Sagg harbour, called the twelve acres, at our Discretion, and pursuant to the trust reposed in us and the power by the trustees given us we proceeded in the following method. We laid out a highway of two poles wide upon the South side of the twelve acres, joining to the great Division. We laid out a highway of two poles wide from the Southwest Corner of the 12 acres to the highway that goes from Sagg harbour to Southampton, then we began at the north side of the 12 acres between the highway that goes from Sagg harbour to Southampton and the highway that goes from Sagg harbour to Sagg where we laid out the lot No 1 which is 11 poles wide butting upon both of the said highways, No 2 is Southward of No 1 joining to the same and is 6 poles wide at each end butting on said highways, No 3 is Southward & joining to No 2 and is 5 poles wide at each end butting on said highways, No 4 is southward of No 3 joining to the same and butts on the westerly end 3 poles on the highway, and 5 poles on the Easterly side of the Lot No 5 and is 4 poles wide at the East end. No 5* is six poles wide at the north west end but

* From a deed in possession of Eleazar Latham, Esq., we learn "Braddock Cory hath purchased a number of fifties in Lot 7, 12 acre division, and John Hurlburt hath purchased Lot 5, adjoining, and built a house upon it. Aug. 17, 1796." This house stood on the site of the present residence of Mrs. Lobstein, south side of Union street, and within a few rods of the corner of Main street. The residence of Stephen B. ting on the highway, and is to the westward of No 4 and No 7 joining to the same and is 8 poles wide at the south end, No 6 is at the Southwest corner of the 12 acres lying to the highway on the south and west and north, and is about 7 poles and 3 feet wide at the north west end and 6 poles wide at the South end. No 7 is eastward of No 5 and Southward of No 4 and is about 14 poles wide at the westerly end and about 10 poles at the east end butting on the highway. No 8 is eastward of the highway that goes from Sagg harbour to Sagg and lyeth on the north side of the 12 acres and is 3 poles and half wide at the west end butting on the highway and 2 poles $\frac{1}{4}$ at the east end butting on the highway that is between Southampton and East Hampton. No 9 is Southward and joining to No 8 and is 3 poles and $\frac{1}{2}$ wide at the west end and 2 poles and $\frac{1}{4}$ at the east end butting on said highway. No 10 is Southward and joiniag to No 9 and is 8 poles and $\frac{1}{2}$ at west end and 2 poles and $\frac{1}{4}$ at the east end. No 11 is Southward and joining to No 10 and is 3 poles & $\frac{1}{2}$ wide at the west end and 2 poles and $\frac{1}{4}$ at the east end. No 12 is southward of No 11 joining to the same and is 3 poles & $\frac{1}{2}$ wide at the west end and 2 poles and $\frac{1}{4}$ at the east end. No 13 is Southward and joining to No 12 and is 4 poles wide at the west end and 2 poles and $\frac{1}{4}$ at the east. No 14 is Southward and joining to No 13 and is 4 poles wide at the west end and 2 poles & $\frac{1}{4}$ at the east end. No 15 is to the Southward and joining to No 14 and is about 8 poles wide at the west end and about 2 poles and $\frac{1}{2}$ at the east end. No 16 lyeth on the north west side of the highway that goes from Sagg harbour to Southampton and is 4 poles wide butting on said highway, and from the easter most of said corners to a post marked with No 16, and from thence upon a square line 7 poles & $\frac{1}{2}$ wide including all the land to the north west. No 17 lyeth to the Southwest of No 16 joining to the same and is 6 poles wide at the front or highway and 10 poles wide at the west end in the line between the 12 acres and the Great Division, and all the Remainder of the land that lyeth to the Southward of No 17 the north west side of the highway we lay out as amendments to the lots No 5 & No 6.

[RETURN OF ACCABOGUE DIVISION, QUOGUE PURCHASE.]

That whereas we Elisha Howell and Thomas Sandford being elected and chosen by the trustees of the town of Southampton to lay out or lot a certain tract of land in Quogue purchase at our discretion, and pursuant to the trust reposed in us and the power by the trustees given us we proceeded in the following method, Beginning at the going over at Red creek, and going Southwardly to a pine tree standing at the Southernmost part of Red creek pond about one pole and half from the pond marked on four sides, and from thence upon a west line to the path that goes from the head of the River to Quogue

PAGE 294] and from thence along the road or highway to a stake fixed and standing near to John Albertsons, and from thence to Red creek, then beginning at the said Red creek pond went four hundred & 10 poles upon the said west line, and from thence on a straight line across to Birch brook where we began with the Lot No 1 and made it 39 poles at the North end & 56 poles at the South end, the Lot No 2 is westward and joining to No 1 and is 25 poles at the North end & 49 poles at the south end, the Lot No 3 is westward and joining to the Lot No 2 and is 25 poles wide at the north end & 50 poles at the south end, the Lot No 4 is westward and joining to No 3 and is 32 poles at the north end and 39 poles wide at the south end, No 5 is westward and joining to the Lot No 4 and is 31 poles & $\frac{1}{2}$ wide at the north end and 38 at the south end, the Lot No 6 is westward and joining to No 5 and is 29 poles & $\frac{1}{2}$ wide at the north end and 30 poles at the south end, the Lot No 7 is westward and joining to No 6 and is 49 poles wide at the north end and 30 poles at the south end, the lot No 8 is westward and joining to the Lot No 7 and is 22 poles at the north end and 26 poles at the South end, the Lot No 9 is westward and joining to No 8 and is 14 poles at the north end and is 15 poles and $\frac{1}{2}$ at the south end, The Lot No 10 is westward and joining to No 9 and is 16 poles wide at the north end and 15 poles and $\frac{1}{2}$ at the south end, No 11 is westward and joining to No 10 and is 16 poles and $\frac{1}{2}$ at the north end and 15 poles at the south end, No 12 is westward and joining to No 11 and is 17 poles wide at the north end and 11 poles at the south end, No 13 is westward and joining to No 12 and is 16 poles wide at the north end and 12 poles at the south end, The Lot No 14 is westward and joining to No 13 and is 15 poles wide at the north end and 11 poles at the south end, No 15 is westward and joining to the lot No 14 and is 14 poles wide at the north end and 11 poles at the south end, No 16 is westward and joining to No

15 and is 15 poles wide at the north end and 11 poles at the south end, and westward of the lot No 16 we lay out a piece of land for to sell 40 poles wide at each end, and joining to that westward is the Lot No 17 and is 16 poles wide at the north end and 12 poles and $\frac{1}{2}$ at the south end, the Lot No 18 is westward of the Lot No 17 and joining to the same and is 15 poles wide at the north end and 11 poles wide at the south end, the Lot No 19 is westward and joining to the Lot No 18 and is 13 & $\frac{1}{2}$ poles wide at the north end and 11 poles and $\frac{3}{4}$ at the south end, The lot No 20 is westward and joining to the lot No 19 and is 15 poles wide at the north end and 11 poles at the south end, The Lot No 21 is westward and joining to the Lot No 20 and is 14 poles wide at the north end and 11 poles $\frac{3}{4}$ at the south end, The Lot No 22 is westward and joining to the Lot No 21 and is 17 poles wide at the north end and 11 poles wide at the south end, The lot No 23 is westward and joining to No 22 and is 43 poles wide at the north end and 12 poles wide at the south end, The Lot No 24 is westward and joining to the Lot N 23 and is 42 poles at the north end and 11 poles wide at the south end, The Lot No 25 is westward and joining to the Lot No 24 and is 34 poles wide at the north end and 10 poles wide at the south end, The Lot No 26 is westward and joining to the Lot No 25 and is 25 poles wide at the north end and 13 poles at the south end.

Then we proceeded and laid out 26 amendments to the above said 26 Lots, Beginning at Red Creek we laid out the amendment No 1 which is 94 poles wide at the north end and 45 at the south end, which we put to the Lot 18. The amendment No 2 is westward and joining to the amendment No 1 and is 71 poles wide at the north end and 50 poles wide at the south end, which we put to the Lot No 19. The amendment No 3 is westward of the amendment No 2 and joining to the same and is 63 poles wide at the north end and 58 poles wide at the south end which we laid to the lot No 17.

(To prevent the unnecessary repetition of the original we will here state that each amendment is westward of and joining the preceeding No. w. s. p.)

PAGE 295. Amendment No 4 is 63 poles wide at the north end and 45 poles wide at the south end which we put to Lot No 14. Amendment No 5 is 32 poles wide at north end and 44 at south end which we put to Lot No 24. Amendment No 6 is 32 poles wide at north end and 32 poles wide at south end which we put to Lot 20. Amendment No 7 is 32 poles wide at north end and 20 poles wide at south end which we put to Lot 21. Amendment No 8 is 39 poles wide at the north end and 33 poles wide at south end which we put to Lot No 22. Amendment No 9 is 45 poles wide at north end and 22 poles wide at south end which we put to Lot 16. Amendment No 10 is 50 poles wide at north end and 22 poles wide at south end, put to Lot 15. Amendment No 11 is 40 poles wide at north end and 22 at south end put to Lot 23. Amendment No 12 is 46 poles wide at north end and 17 pole at south end put to Lot No 1. Amendment No 13 is 16 poles wide at north end and 20 poles wide at south end put to Lot No 26. Amendment No 14 is $17\frac{1}{2}$ poles wide at north end and 20 poles wide at south end put to Lot No 2. Amendment No 15 is 17 poles wide at north end and 24 poles at south end put to Lot No 3. Amendment No 16 is 19 poles wide at north end and 23 poles at south end put to Lot No 4. Amendment No 17 is 19 poles wide at north end and 23 at south end put to Lot No 5. Amendment No 18 is 16 poles wide at north end and 22 poles at south end put to Lot 6. Amendment No 19 is 21 poles wide at north end and 20 poles at south end put to Lot 7. Amendment No 20 is 20 poles wide at north end and about 19 poles wide at south end to the path that goes from the head of the River to Quogue, which we put to Lot No 8. Amendment No 21 is $17\frac{1}{2}$ poles wide at north end and 76 poles wide along the above said path at the south end, which we put to the Lot No 9. Amendment No 22 is 17 poles wide at the north end and 75 poles along the path at the south end put to Lot 10. Amendment No 23 is 46 poles wide at north end and 147 poles along the path at south end put to Lot 11. Amendment No PAGE 297] 24 is 71 poles at north end and 168 poles along the path at south end put to Lot 12. Amendment No 25 is 85 poles wide at north end and 169 poles along the path at south end put to Lot 13. Amendment No 26 is about 230 poles at north end and from the northwest corner to the south east corner is about 320 poles which we put to Lot No 25.

And as the width of the above said lots are given and amendments, it is to be understood to be as the path goes, and it is further ordered and agreed on by us the layers out that the Proprietors in Quogue purchase shall have free liberty at all times hereafter to dig clay in any of the above said lots for their own use, and the several roads that lead to and from the Brick kilns shall be for passing roads to ly as they now are till otherwise ordered by the trustees, and although that several of the corners in the above said lots and amendments along the country road are standing near to the path, it is to be understood that the said lots and amendments are not to extend no nearer the path than three rods, and whereas the stream or brook called jumping brook is reserved for the use of the proprietors it is further ordered and agreed on by us the layers out that whoever shall buy the said stream shall have liberty at any time or times hereafter to dig through in the most convenient place to let the pond that lies at the head of said stream or brook out into said brook, and shall not be molested by the owners of the land where they have occasion to dig. This is a return of our work given under our hands this nineteenth day of May and in the year of our Lord 1763.

PAGE 301. That whereas we Elisha Howell Silas Howell and Thomas Sandford being elected and chosen by the trustees of the Town of Southampton to lay out or lot a certain tract of land in Quogue and Toppings purchase at our Discretion and pursuant to the trust reposed in us and the power by the Trustees given us we proceeded in the following method. We laid out 21 Lots in Toppings purchase between red creek and White brook northward of the path, No 1 lies in red creek joining to a piece of land that we left for amendments upon the east side of the neck, No 2 is westward of No 1 bounded on the west partly by the meadow and partly by the land of Nathaniel Halsey and partly by the land that is left for to be sold with the brook called Jumping Brook, No 3 lies in Jumping neck and contains the whole neck excepting about twelve acres as it is now marked out joining to the above said Brook and a piece of land of Nathaniel Halsey, No 4 lies in Birch neck on the East side of the neck, No 5 lies westward of No 4 joining to the same, No 6 lies on the west side of said neck and joining to No 5, No 7 lies on the east side of the neck called Long neck, No 8 lies westward of No 7 joining to the same, No 9 lies westward of No 8, No 10 lies westward and joining to No 9, No 11 lies westward & joining to No 10, No 12 is westward and joining to No 11, No 13 is westward of No 12 and joining to the same, No 14 is westward and joining to No 13, No 15 and No 16 lies in a neck called Otter hole, and between the lot No 16 and the neck called Wells neck lies a piece of land which we laid out as amendments to the lots No 15 and 16, No 21 lies at the west end of Wells neck joining to White brook, and on the east side of said Lot we laid out a highway of 4 poles wide from the country road to the cliff, No 17 lies on the South side of said neck joining to the road, the Lot No 18 lies northward of No 17, No 19 lies northward of No 18, No 20 lies northward of the lot No 19 on the north side of said neck. And the above said peice of land in Red creek lying between the creek and the lot No 1 we lay out as amendments to the lots No 4 No 5 and No 6. And whereas there is several points of land at the bottom of the above said necks that are without the corners of said lots we the Layers out do agree that the owners of said lots shall hold all such lands as is included within their corners quite down to the meadow, And altho that several of the corners in the above said lots along the County road is standing near to the path it is to be understood that the said lots are not to extend any nearer to the path than three poles, And it is further ordered and agreed on by us the layers out that there shall be a passing road of 4 poles wide down each neck in the most convenient place for the owners of the meadows in each neck to pass and re-pass to and from their meadows, and also for the use of the Proprietors or owners of the land in Quogue purchase, if they shall have occasion to cart down pine logs or any thing else which they may have occasion for, And whereas there are some persons that have houses on some of said necks of land the owners of said houses shall have full liberty to take his or their houses off of said land without molestation from said owners of the land or those that shall draw any of said lots. And further the stream or brook called Jumping brook with the lands on each side as they are marked out is reserved to be sold for the proprietors use, this is the return of our work, given under our hands this nineteenth day of May in the year of our Lord 1763.

REPORT OF THE SURVEY OF THE LITTLE SOUTH DIVISION.
SOUTHAMPTON, SEPT. 6th, 1763.

PAGE 307. Whereas we, Josiah Pierson, Thomas Sandford Israel Halsey, Jeddediah Howell and Stephen Rogers were appointed and authorized by the trustees to lay out a certain tract, or certain tracts and parcels of land between East Hampton bounds and the Indian line, into 51 lots, quantity & quality, according to the best of our discretion; pursuant to our trust and appointment we began at or near Wainscott, where there is a piece of land lying between the East Hampton line and the old improved land belonging to Sagg people, which we laid for two lots, viz: No. 1 and No 2; No 1 lies at the South end of said piece of land and is bounded South by the highway going from Abram Pierson to Wainscott, and East by the highway between the two towns, which highway is 4 poles wide from the South end of No 1 to the north end of it, this lot contains about 9 acres. No 2 lies northward and joining to No 1 and is bounded on the east by the highway between the two towns above said, and includes all the land from the north end of No 1 to the country road that leads from South to East Hampton, and between the land of Capt. Stephen Topping on the west and a line drawn from the north east corner of No 1 to a stake standing one rod west of the bound stone on the east and contains about 11 acres. Then we laid out 2 lots to wit, No 3 and No 4, on the north side of Ammi Flints and Sylvanus Toppings land, and No 3 is bounded on the north by the countrp read, east by Joslah Piersons land, and south partly by said Pierson and partly by Ammi Flints land, and west by No 4, containing about eight acres. No 4 is westward of and joining to No 3 and is bounded north by the country road, south by Sylvanus Toppings lot, and west by the highway or street, and contains about 7 acres, including a highway of two poles wide, for Ammi Flint (where the path now is) to pass and re-pass to and from his land; and there is a piece of land lying at the bottom of the lane at Meacox of about 4 acres which we laid as a part of this lot, and is bounded north and west by the highway, east by Elisha Howells land, and south by the beach. Then we laid out the lot No 5. This lot lyeth between Paul Piersons and Daniel Howells and extends eastward as far as Edward Howells hop-yard, where there stands a stake marked with No 5, (which is the S-E corner of the lot) on the west side, and the letter H for highway on the south side, and the south line of this lot is to run from the stake last mentioned upon a straight line along by the country road to a stake standing about half way to Paul Piersons lot, and from that middle stake upon a direct line to the S-E corner of Paul Piersons lot, and this lot contains all the land between the country road and Edward Howells land, (leaving Daniel Howell a highway two poles wide before his door to extend as far as the east end of his house) and is bounded west by the east side of Paul Piersons lot and the highway to go the Sag Harbor, north by Edward Howell and east by him, and south by the country road, and contains about 8 acres. Then we proceeded and laid out three lots, No 6, No 7 and No 8, at the south or southeast end of Poxabogue pond. No 6 lies between No 7 and No 8, the east or southeast end coming up to the corner where the roads meet, that is the road that goes from Sagg to Sag Harbor and the country road that goes from South to East Hampton and lies partly upon both, and the north or north west end is bounded by a highway that we laid out along by the pond aforesaid, and contains about 7 acres. [PAGE 30S.] No 7 lies northward of No 6 and joining to it, and is bounded east by the highway leading from Sagg to the Harbor, north by a highway which goes from Edward Howells down to the pond, (which highway we laid out and it is 6 rods wide at the east end and 4 rods at the west end) and west by the highway going along the pond side, and contains about 8 acres. No 8 lies west of No 6 and joining to it, and is bounded south by the country road, west by a highway which we laid out 5 poles wide between David Hands orchard and said No 8, and northerly by the highway going along by the pond, and this lot falling short of its compliment of land, we laid a piece of about two acres lying a little westward of David Hands barn as a part of this lot; and it is bounded on the north by the highway which we laid from the north-east corner of David Hands orchard, along on the west side of Poxoboge pond (which highway is 4 poles wide) on the east by common land, south by David Hands lot, and west by a highway which we laid for Daniel Topping, which highway is 3 poles wide at the north end and 2 poles wide at the south end. Then we laid out 4 lots to the east or north east of Poxoboge pond, to wit, No 9, No 10, No 11 and No 12, No 9 lies on the north side of and joining to the highway that goes from Edward Howells down to the pond, and is bounded east by the highway that goes to the harbour, and west by the highway that goes along by John Norrissis into the woods, (which highway we laid 4 poles wide) and this lot contains about 14 acres. No 10 lies northward of and joining to No 9 and is bounded on the east and west as No 9 is, and contains about 11 acres. No 11 lies northward of and joining to No 10 and is bounded on the east and west as No 10 is and contains about 11 acres. No 12 lies northward of and joining to No 11 and is bounded east and west as No 11 is and on the north by a highway that was formerly laid out at the south end of the Great South Division lots, and this lot falling short of its compliment of land we laid about 8 acres (as a part of it) on the north side of Daniel Toppings land that he bought of Stanborough, and runs west as far as Benjamin Sayres land and is bounded by it, and the north easterly side of the piece of land is to run from a stake standing at Toppings corner above said upon a direct line to a stake standing 7 rods from Ben Sayres corner at the water hole and from that stake it runs west parallel with the north side of said Sayres land until it joins to it. We then proceeded to lay out the remainder of the land on the west side of Poxoboge pond, as far west as the road that goes from Nathan Norrissis to Daniel Moores, and first we laid out several highways as one of 4 poles wide from the north east corner of David Hands orchard running about north west until it comes to the stake before mentioned that stands 7 rods from Ben Sayres corner and there the road divides into two branches, one branch of two poles wide runs north easterly to go to Ammi Fliuts and Dr Tarbells land, and the other branch of two poles wide runs westerly along the north side of Ben Sayres land, and to continue its course along by the fence side as the fence now runs until it comes into the road at the north west corner of Nathan Norrissis lot; we also laid a passing road of 2 poles wide along on the north side of Daniel Toppings land that he had of Stanbrough as far as the house where Elnathan Wood now lives; this road goes through that piece of land laid to the lot No 12. [PAGE 309.] We then laid out 3 lots, namely No 13, 14 and 15. No 13 is the eastermost lot and is bounded north by the highway that is laid across the Great South Division lots, east by the pond and Dr Tarbells land, south by the highway running along by the north side of Ben Sayres land, and west by No 14, and contains about 21 acres, including Poxoboge little pond and Ammi Flints highway. No 14 lies westward of and joining to No 13, and is bounded north and south as No 13 is and contains about 14 acres. No

15 lies westward of and joining to No 14, and is bounded north and south as No 14 is and west by the highway going from Nathan Norrissis to Daniel Moores, and this lot not having a sufficient quantity of land we laid as a part of it about 2 acres in a triangular form on the west side of the brushy plaine, between the Sag Harbor road and the road that goes along by Joshua Howell's the south end running to a point and the north end is bounded by part of the lot No 18, the whole lot contains about 11 acres. We then proceeded to the brushy plains where we laid out 5 lots to wit, No 16, 17, 18, 19 & No 20, and first we laid a highway of 4 poles wide along the west side of Nathan Norrissis lot to the N-W corner of it, and it continues from there down to Daniel Moores as the path now runs; we also laid the Sag Harbor road 4 rods wide as the path now runs; we then laid two lots No 16 and 17 between these two roads fronting up to the country road, and the north end of them is bounded by the lot No 18, and they contain about 6 acres apiece, No 16 being the eastmost of those two lots. No 18 lies northward of and joining to No 16 and No 17 and is bounded on the east and west as they are, and north by the lot No 20, and part of this lot No 18 lies on the west side of the harbor road and is bounded north by No 19, west by the highway going by Joshua Howells & south by part of the lot No 15 as before mentioned, and this lot contains about 10 acres in the whole. No 19 lies between the harbor road and the road going along by Joshua Howells, and the north bounds is the highway across the South Division lots, and southerly bounded by part of No 18 and contains about $9\frac{1}{2}$ acres. No 20 lies between the Harbor road and the road going to Daniel Moores, and is bounded south by No 18, and north by the highway across the South Division lots, and contains about 12 acres. Having finished Brushy plaine, we then proceeded to the cleared land before the Widdow Toppings door by the Wind mills, where we laid out the lot No 21, this lot lies on the north side of and joining to the Parsonage land, and is bounded east at the east end by the highway, and from the N-E corner of it running westerly southward of Joshua Howells mill to the west side of burying place, (making a crook just against the mill) it there turns square down northerly to the country road, and then continues along the country road as far west as be parallel with the west end of the parsonage land, then southward to the north west corner of said land and contains about 7 acres. No 22 lies westward of No 21 and the parsonage land and is bounded north and south by the highway and contains about 6 acres. No 23 lies westward of and joining to No 22 and is bounded north and south on the highway as No 22 is, and west by the highway, containing about 6 acres. [PAGE 310.] We then proceeded to lay out several highways, and first we laid out a highway of 4 poles wide from the southwest corner of Maltbie's lot to the southwest corner of the parsonage land where it comes into the highway that goes to Sagg. We then laid out a highway of two poles wide from the corner of Malbye's lot aforesaid to the N-E corner of Zackeriah Sandfords lot and so running along the east end of it until it comes to Tim Halseys house for him to pass and repass. We then laid a highway of 2 poles wide (out of the main road as you go to Sagg) on the west side of the house and barn that was formerly John Coopers and so running southward along by the west side of the land belonging to said house and continues along by Wheatons house until it comes to Tim Halseys bars at the N-E corner of his lot. And the road just northward of the school house which goes to Sagg we laid 4 poles wide. We then laid out the lot No 24 and this lot is bounded on every side by highway, the west bound is the highway from Maltbies corner to Tim Halseys, and the south bounds is the highway that goes to Sagg and contains above $5\frac{1}{2}$ acres. Then we laid out 3 lots (viz) No 25, 26, and No 27 on the south side of the Sagg highway between Tim Halseys highway and the highway going along by Wheatons. No 25 and No 26 front up to the highway that goes to Sagg and are bounded east by Wheatons highway, and west by Tim Halseys highway, and south by No 27 and contain about 6 acres apiece. No 27 lies southward of and joining to No 25 and 26, and is bounded east and west as they are, and south by Tim Halseys lot, and this lot falling short of its complement of land, we laid a piece of land as a part of it on the west side of and joining to Tim Halseys highway, and bounded south by a highway which we laid out along the north side of Zechariah Sandfords lot, (which highway is 2 poles wide), west by part of No 28, and north by the Sagg highway, this piece of land is 10 poles wide at the south end, and 9 poles at the north end. Then we laid out the lot No 28, this lot is bounded north by the country road, east by Tim Halseys highway, south by Sagg highway and west by highway or common land, coming almost to a point; and this lot not having its complement of and we laid a piece of land southward of and joining to Sagg highway, and is bounded east by part of No 27, south by the highway running along on the north side of Zechariah Sandfords lot, and west by No 29, this piece of land is about 12 rods wide at the south end and 9 rods at the north end. Then we laid out the lot No 29; this lot lies southward of and joining to Sagg highway, bounded east by part of No 28, south by the highway running along the north side of Zechariah Sandfords lot and west by the common land or highway running from Zechariah Sandfords house to country road. We then proceeded to lay out that piece of land lying northward of the country road, between Maltbies lot and Corwithys lot, running northward to Thomas Coopers land, and first we left a highway of 4 poles wide along the west end of Maltbies lot, except at the north west corner, and there it is but 3 poles wide then going northward it widens to 4 poles again, and so continues along by Jesse Howells, we also left a highway of 4 poles wide on the east side of Corwithys lot and so along by widow Moore's, and Captain Howells, to David Cooks. We then laid a highway out of this road of two poles wide along on the south end of Thomas Coopers land, until it comes into the highway going along by Jesse Howells.

PAGE 311. Then we laid a highway of 4 poles wide from the southwest corner of said Coopers land running pretty much south east until it comes into the road going along by Nathan Halseys 24 poles southward of his house, having finished the highways that were needful in or about this piece of land we laid it into 5 lots, namely No 30, 31, 32, 33, and No 34, No 30 lies northward of and joining to ye country road, and is bounded east by the highway going from the S-W corner of Maltbys lot to Jesse Howells, and west by the highway going along by Capt Howells containing about 8 acres. No 31 lies north of & joining to No 30 and is bounded on the east and west as No 30 is and contains about 9 acres. No 32 lies northward of and joining to No 31, and is bounded on the east and west as No 31 is and contains about 10 acres. No 33 lies northward of and joining to No 32 and is bounded on the east and west as No 32 is, and contains about 10 acres. No 34 lies northward of and joining to No 33 and is bounded on the east and west as No 33 is, and is bounded on the north by the highway running along by the south end of Thomas Coopers land. We then proceeded to Windrill Hill, and beginning on the north side of Jeremiah Halseys land in the way as you go to Sag Harbor we laid out the lot No 35, this lot lieth in 2 pieces, one on the east side of the lane that cometh up from Nathaniel Woodruffs, and the other piece on the west side; that piece on the east side is bounded north by the harbor road, east by the common land, south by Jeremiah Halseys land, west by Woodruff's lane aforesaid; and that part or piece of this lot that lies on the west side of the lane and joining to it at the east end, is bounded south by David Woodruff's land, west by No 36, and north by the Harbour road, the whole lot contains about $8\frac{1}{2}$ acres. No 36 lies westward of and joining to No 35 and is bounded on the south by David Woodruff and Mitchells land, west by the highway coming up from Ebenezer Edwards, and north by the Harbor road, allowing David Woodruff a highway 2 poles wide in the most convenient place to go to his land; and this lot not having its complement of land we laid as a part of it 'about 4 acres on the north side of the Harbor road, to the westward of Edwards lane, joining to Edwards and Woodruff's land; and the east bounds is Edwards lane, South by the Harbor road, and west by a highway which we laid out along on ye south end of David Woodruff's land. We then laid out the lot No 37, and it is of triangular form, the north bounds is the last mentioned highway, the east or south east bounds the Harbor highway, and the westward side lies to the road running from the north west corner of Samuel Jones's land, to Mill stone swamp (which highway is 4 poles wide) and contains about 7 acres. We then laid out the lot No 38, this lot is bounded north by the common land, easterly partly by the highway that goes to Millstone, and partly by ye harbor road, south by common land, and west by Ben Woodruff's land, and contains about 17 acres. We then laid out the lot No 39, this lies southward of and joining to the Harbor road, and bounded east by Jonah Rogers land, the north east corner coming down to the pond before Samvel Joneses door, the south bounds is a highway which we laid of two poles wide along the north side of Jeremy Strattous land, for Jonah Rogers to go to and from his land, the west end comes almost to a point and bounded by [PAGE 312.] highway, reserving 13 rods square of land joining to Jonah Rogers highway where the burying place now is for that purpose, and this lot not being sufficient, we laid as a part of it 2 acres and quater in a triangular form on the north west side of Nathan Halseys land, bounded east by the highway north by the harbor road, the north end coming to a point, also one acre and half of land lying near Henry Sandfords as it is now staked out. We then proceeded to Mill stone swamp, where we laid out three lots, No 40, 41 and No 42, and we first laid out a highway of 4 poles wide from the north west corner of David Woodruffs land to the S-E corner of Samuel Ludlams mill stone land, leaving a part of the lot No 40 on the eastward side of this highway, we then laid a highway as the path now runs from the north end of David Woodruffs land to Ludlams land at the Mill stone, we then laid a highway of 3 poles wide on the north side of the land belonging to the heirs of Timothy Woodruff deceased, until it comes to the south east corner of a lot of land in the Great South division which belongs to Tim Woodruffs heirs. We then laid out the lot No 40 this lot lyeth in two pieces, one piece lies on the south east side of the highway that goes from David Woodruffs corner to the southeast corner of Ludlams land as above mentioned and is triangular, bounded south by David Woodruff, and east by Ebenezer Edwards, the other piece of this lot lies westward of and joining to the lot No 42, and is bounded north by Sam Ludlams land, west by the land belonging to the heirs of Tim Woodruff, and south by the 3 pole highway before mentioned, and this lot falling short in point of goodness we laid a piece of land of about 4 acres in the lane below Samuel Howells at Meacox as you go to the beach, bounded north east and west by highways, and south partly by highway and partly by John Sandfords land. Then we laid out the lot No 41, this lot lies between the road going from David Woodruffs corner to the south east corner of Ludlams land, and the road that goes to Ludlams Mill stone swamp or house, bounded north by Ludlams land and south by highway or common land, the south end coming almost to a point. No 42 lies westward of the highway going to Ludlands Mill stone swamp, and is bounded north by Ludlams land, west by part of the lot No 40, and South by the 3 poles highway above mentioned. We then laid out 3 lots to the southward of Jeremiah Strattons, viz: 43, 44 and 45. No 43 lies on the south side of the road going from Mathew Jagger's house down Strattons lane and is bounded westerly by the Harbor road, and easterly by the highway, and this lot not having its complement we laid a piece of land as a part of it containing 1 acre and $\frac{1}{2}$ and 30 rods of ground on the south east side of Jonah Rogers home lot and joining to it, the south or southwest bounds is a lane going to Fithian Halseys, deceased, and south easterly by the Harbor road, and the north east end by the commons land. No 44 lies southward of No 43 and joining to it, and is bounded east and west as No 43 is. No 45 lies southward of and joining to No 44 and is bounded easterly and westerly as No 44 is, and southerly by the high-[PAGE 313.] way going along by David Coopers. We then laid out the lot No 46, this lot lies in the lane between Abram Roses and the new Meeting House, and is bounded north by the country road, east by the lands of Abram Rose, the heirs of Caleb Corwithy and Deacon Haynes, south by commons land, and west by highway which goes from ye country road down along by Deacon Haynes which highway we laid 6 poles wide, this lot contains about 8 acres and allows the owners of the sheep yard liberty to carry off their fence any time within three months. Then we laid out the lot No 47 eastward of and joining to Calf Creek bounded south, east & north by highways or commons land, and west partly by Deacon Haynes, leaving a highway of 4 poles wide along on the west side of Thomas Coopers land containing about 12 acres. We then proceeded to Meacox, old burying place, where we laid out 3 lots to wit No 48, 49 and No 50, No 48 lies eastward of and joining to No 49 and is bounded east by the highway which we laid from the main highway by Jonah

Tarbells down to the bottom of the lane to Elias Cook's bars, which highway is 4 poles wide to run as the fence now runs, the south bound is a vacant piece of land we left at the burying place, the north bounds is the main road which goes along by Thomas Coopers to Elisha Howells and contains about 8 acres. No 49 lies westward of and adjoining to No 48 and is bounded south by a highway of 2 poles wide which we laid for Elias Cook, west by Daniel Schellengers land, and north by the main road, and when it comes to the N-E corner of Schellengers land it shoves down along on the north side of his land to the hollow before Thomas Coopers door, leaving Schelleuger a two pole highway from his lower bars up to his upper bars about 21 rods eastward, the west bounds of this piece is the nollow above said, and this lot contains about 8 acres. No 50 lies southward of and adjoining to Elias Cooks 2 pole highway, and is bounded east and south by highway, and west by Elias Cooks land, and contains about 8 acres. No 51 lies between Eber Whites and Ebenezer White, and is bounded south by the Sag Harbor road, east by Elisha Halsey north by Eber White, and west by the highway, leaving Eber White a highway to go to his house, and into his lot of 6 poles wide at the west end, and 2 poles wide at the east end, of this highway is to be one rod eastward of his bars where he goes into his lot, this lot contains about 10 acres, the south line of this lot is something crooked, running from the S-W corner stake to a stake standing right against the extreme part of the bend in Ebenezer Whites fence, where the highway is but 4 poles wide and it runs from said stake upon a direct line to a stake standing 3 rods from the middle of the path a little way south westerly from Elisha Halseys house, and from thence north easterly to a walnut tree standing in Elishas fence. Having gone through with and made 51 lots we then proceeded to lay out 51 amendments to put to and draw with the 51 lots, and first we began at the Hay ground and laid out 4 amendments, No 1, 2, 3 and No 4. [PAGE 314.] No 1 begins at the south west corner of the widow Toppings lot, and runs westward across the Hay ground brook to a stake on the hill a little way southwesterly from Edmunds house, and from thence northerly to a stake standing a rod or two from Dans house, and from thence across the swamp east 4 degrees south to the widdow Toppings corner, where we began, containing about 15 acres; then the remainder of land northward of this amendment up to John Kenners and David Luptons orchard we laid to 3 amendments, No 2, No 3, and No 4. No 2 lies northward of and joining to No 1 and is bounded east by the land of the heirs of John Topping deceased, and west by Great South Division land. No 3 lies northward of and joining to No 2 and is bounded east & west as No 2 is. No 4 lies northward of and joining to No 3 and contains all the remainder of the land up to Kennies and Luptons as aforesaid, leaving Israel Halsey a two pole highway between the north end of No 3 and south end of No 4, and the several paths and roads that go through this piece of land between Dans house and as far northward as the three last amendments go, shall lie as they now are until they are otherwise altered by trustees or Commissioners, application being made unto them by the grieved party or parties. We then proceeded to Jeremiah Strattons well, and there is a piece of land lying northward of Sag-Harbor road, which we laid to 4 amendments, to wit, No 5, No 6, No 7, and No 8. No 5 lies northward of and joining to the Harbor highway and is bounded east by Jeremiah Strattons land, and west by Elisha Halseys land. No 6 lies northward of and joining to No 5 and is bounded east and west as No 5 is. No 7 lies northward of and joining to No 6 and is bounded east by the land belonging to the heirs of John Topping deed, and west by Elisha Halsey. No 8 is northward of and joining to No 7 and is bounded east by Mr Fithians land, and west and north by lands formerly laid out; and the paths and roads that run through this piece of land are to remain as they now are until altered by trustees or Commissioners, but if any of the owners of the amendments that lie in this piece of land should want hereafter to fence their land, they are not to fence no nearer the main path that was made by deacon Haynes, than one rod. We then laid out 6 amendments, namely No 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14, between the house teat was formerly Edmund Northgates and the widow Anna Rose, extending northward to the path going by Elisha Halseys to Sag Harbor. No 9 lies southward of and joining to the Harbor road, and is bounded easterly by the lands of Elisha Halsey, Ezekiel Rose, and a 2 pole highway which we laid from the south end of Ezekiel Roses land to Lemuel Halseys land, and this highway is to turn square down from the south end of Ezekiel Roses land to the path that runs along the hollow; the south bounds is the amendment No 10, and west by Ebenezer White and Lemuel Halseys land. The amendment No 10 is southward of and joining to No 9, and is bounded on the north partly by No 9 and partly by the southern end of Lemuel Halseys land, westerly by Ezekiel Rose, and a highway of two poles wide which we laid for the widow Rose, to extend northerly to a stake set up for that purpose, southerly by highway or common land, and easterly by the amendment No 11. No 11 lies eastward of and joining to No 10, and is bounded partly on the north by No 14 and partly by Lemuel Halseys land, southerly by the highway and common land, and eastward by No 12. No 12 lies easterly of and joining to No 11, and is bounded northerly by No 14, easterly by No 13, and southerly by the highway that goes by Edmunds to Scuttle hole. No 13 lies easterly of and joining to No 12 and is bounded northerly by No 14, southerly by the highway, and easterly by ye land belonging to Henry Ludlow, deceased. No 14 lies to the northward of No 13 and No 12, and part of No 11, and is bounded northwardly by the highway going along by Elisha Halseys to the Harbor, easterly by the land belonging to the heirs of Henry Ludlow, and westerly by land belonging to Elisha Halsey, Ezekiel Rose, Ebenezer and Charles White, and Lemuel Halsey, and there are several roads through this piece of land where these 6 last amendments lie, as one from the Hay ground hollow running along the same and comes out into the Harbour road near Elisha Halseys; this road is to be an open road or highway of 4 poles wide as the path now runs; and then there is a road from the foot of the great Sand hill a little to the southward of Eneas's house that runs north-westerly along the hollow and comes into the Harbor path 20 or 30 rods to the westward of Elnathan Paynes house, and this road is to be a passing road of 2 poles wide. We then laid out two amendments, No 15 and No 16, between Jesse Jennings new house and the land of Samuel Halsey. No 15 lies northward of and joining to No 16 and is bounded west by a 4 pole highway which we laid along on the east side of Sam Halseys land, north by Nathaniel Halsey, and east by the highway; and all the common land between this highway and Nathaniel Halseys land up northward to Jesse Jennings old house belongs to this amendment. No 16 lies southward of and joining to No 15 and is bounded east and west as No 15 is, and is bounded south by common land. We then laid out the amendment No 17 on the north side of the lot of land called Stamboroughs lot lying in a triangular form, bounded south by said lot and David Howells land, west by a 4 pole highway which we laid for David Howell, and John Sayre Jr out of the north end of his land, northwardly by common land, the east end coming almost to a point, containing about 11 acres. No 18 lies in three pieces, one on the north side of Daniel Hildreths lot and joining to it extending from a little eastward of his barn where the stake stands to the north east corner of his lot and contains about 2 acres more or less, as it is now staked, bounded north and west by common land, and east by David Howells highway above mentioned; another piece lies between Daniel Hildreths and his brother Josephs, joining to Daniels lot, leaving him a highway at the east end of it, between that and his garden, to go into his lot, and contains about 2 acres; the third piece is a little point of land called Flax Pond point, lying among the seven ponds, containing two or three acres be it more or less, including all the land and swamps from William White's fence on the east to the pond on the west, and to extend northward as far as the pond that lies at the north end, and the south bounds is the common land. No 19 lies at the Seven Ponds where we set up two stakes marked 19, and all the common land lying to the northward of these stakes to the lotted land extending eastward to the easternmost point of the Island, and westward as far as Joseph Hildreths land belongs to this amendment, not infringing at all upon Flax Pond point, and allowing a six pole highway as the path now runs through the said land.

We then proceeded to the westward of Joseph Hildreths house, and between there and the southwest corner of Ichabod Sayres land we laid out 4 amendments, to wit: No 20, 21, 22, and 23, leaving a six pole highway all around them except at the southeast corner of Ichabod Sayres close, and there it may be something less than six poles. No 20 is the first of these 4 amendments and is bounded east by common land, north and south by highways, containing about 8 acres. No 21 lies westward of and adjoining No 20 and is bounded north and south as No 20 is, and west by No 22 and No 23, containing about 9 acres. No 22 and 23 front up to the highway that goes along by Elias and Abner Howells land. No 22 is northermost of these two amendments, and is bounded north and west by highway, and east by No 21, containing about 9 acres. No 23 is southward of and joining to No 22 and is bounded east and west as No 22 is, and south by the highway containing about 9 acres be it more or less as it is staked out.

Then we laid out 6 amendments in the great plain that lies to the northward of John Bishops and Abners land, and first we laid a highway of six poles wide along from the southwest corner of Ichabod Sayres close to the northwest corner of Samuel Bishops close, except in the extreme part of the bend in Ichabod Sayres fence, and there it is but 4 poles wide, but widens again each way gradually to six poles as above; then we laid a highway of 4 poles wide from the northwest corner of Bishops close (by Pelletreaus orchard) along westward across the end of the Great South Division lots, as far as the west end of Joneses ditch, and there it comes into a six pole highway which we laid from here running down southward until it comes into the highway by John Bishops close a little eastward of the northwest corner, (it is meant that close he bought of Ephraim Hildreth) and from the northwest corner of John Bishops close last mentioned, we laid a six pole highway, and at the corner there makes a jog in the fence and the highway is wider, then we laid out the amendment No 24 in a triangular form at the N-E corner of this above said great plain, the south end coming to a point at the highway and east and north it lies to the highway, containing about 7 acres. No 25 lies westward of and joining to No 24 bounded north and south by ye highway, containing about 8 acres. No 26 lies westward of and adjoining to No 25, and is bounded north and south as No 35 is, and contains about 8 acres. No 27 lies westward of and joining to No 26, and is bounded north and south as No 26 is, containing about 8 acres. No 28 lies westward of and joining to No 27 and is bounded north and south as No 27 is, and west by the highway that comes from the west end of Joneses ditch to the northwest corner of John Bishops close, he bought of Ephraim Hildreth, containing about 8 acres. No 29 lies westward of and joining to the last mentioned highway, and it is bounded south and west by highways and common land, and north by the Great South Division land lot No 41, containing about 19 acres.

PAGE 317. Then between this amendment and the amendment No 30 we left a vacant piece of land and proceeded to lay out the amendment No 30, and it is bounded east by said vacant piece of land, north by Elias Fosters land, south by common land, and west by part of No 31. No 31 lies in the Long Spring hollows, bounded east west and south by highways and common land, and north by three acres of Captain Rogers land, and this amendment falling short of its complement we laid about 2 acres on the south side of Elias Fosters close and adjoining to it, and is bounded east by No 30, south by common land, and west by a 4 pole highway running along until it comes to the south west corner of Elias Fosters close, and so along to Ichabod Sayres Long Spring land, the whole contains about 9 acres.

No 32 lies southward of and adjoining to John Fosters wood land and is bounded east by the highway which we laid between this amendment and the improved land, south by common land, and west by the main road going to North Sea, containing about 9 acres. No 33 lies on the west side of North Sea main road, and is bounded north by John Fosters wood land, west by Samuel Hunttings land, and south by John Jagers land allowing a highway of 4 poles wide to go through it, from the northwest corner of John Jagers land to the main road going to North Sea as it is now staked out, containing about 9 acres.

We then proceeded to the northwest corner of Samuel Wicks close, (that lies on the road as you go to mill stone brook) and from thence on a direct line to the N-E corner of David Raynors lot, and so from thence westward along on the north side of the lot to the Indian line, and between said Raynors lot and Thos Scotts we laid nine amendments, to wit, No 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41 & 42 all butting on the Indian line and east on the Mill Stone Brook road. No 34 lies northward of and joining to David Raynors lot and is 16 poles wide at the east end upon the mill stone brook road. No 35 lies northward of and joining to No 34 and is 16 poles wide at the east end, and by reason of the swanup we could not set up the stake between these two amendments at the west end nor measure their width, but they are to have all the land from the N-W corner of David Raynors lot to the stakes marked 35 on the south side and 36 on the north side equally between them. Then No 36 is northward of and joining to No 35 and is 16 poles wide at the east end and $25\frac{1}{2}$ poles at the west end. No 37 is northward of and joining to No 36 and is 16 poles wide at the east end and is $24\frac{1}{2}$ poles at the west end. No 38 is northward of and joining to No 37 and is 15 poles wide at the east end and $24\frac{1}{2}$ poles at the west end. No 39 is northward of and joining to No 38 and is 15 poles wide at the east end and 24 poles at the west end. No 40 is northward of and joining to No 39 and is 15 poles wide at the east end and $24\frac{1}{2}$ poles at the west end. No 41 is northward of and joining to No 40 and is 14 poles wide at the east end and 23 poles at the west end. No 42 is northward of and joining to No 41 and is 16 poles wide at the east end and 23 poles at the west end, and the north line of this amendment is to run from the northwest corner of it, (which is 6 rods southward of Thomas Scotts corner,) to the middle of a hole of water (called Maple tree hole) a little way southeast from Thomas Scotts door, and from the middle of said hole of water upon a direct line PAGE 318] to a stake standing on Millstone brook road allowing Thomas Scott liberty to come in at the north east corner with his cart and to go in the most convenient place to get to his house when the highway along by the widow Luptons is not passible to cart in; also allowing Mr. White or whosoever after him shall improve the parsonage land at Sebonmuck, a passing road to cart (not to ride or rive) in, to come in at the west end and slant away southeasterly where the path now is if most convenient until it comes into the main road that goes to Sebonnuck which main road is to be an open road of 4 poles wide, as the path now runs. Then we laid out two amendments on the east side of David Raynors lot namely No 43 and No 44. And No 43 lies southward of and joining to No 34 and is bounded east by the Millstone Brook road, south by No 44, and west by David Raynors lot, the east end of this amendment is 50 poles, north side 74, and the west end 30 poles. No 44 is southward of and joining to No 43, and is bounded east and west as No 43 is, and south by common land, the east end of this amendment is $59\frac{1}{2}$ poles the west end 42 poles, allowing the proprietors forever hereafter liberty to dig clay and make and burn brick in any of the eleven last mentioned amendments, in any place where clay may be found. We then laid out the amendment No 45 which lies at the west end of John Reeves land, running westward to the Indian line, the south side is 48 poles long, joining to the parsonage land, west end 22 poles, the north side 68 poles, which brings it parallel with the west end of John Reeves land. No 46 lies northward of and joining Reeves land and is the length of it, and is 38 poles wide at the west end bounded by No 45, 70 poles at the north side bounded by highway and common land, and 38 poles at the east end and bounded by common land.

No 47 lies to the eastward of John Reeves, Sam Wicks and Jesse Culvers land leaving a 6 pole highway from the northeast corner of Reeves land to Jesse Culvers north bars, and there it comes into a 4 pole highway which comes slanting up from the N-E corner of Jo Fosters lot leaving a triangle on the southwest side of it joining to Jo Fosters lot and Jesse Culvers land (this triangle is part of the amendment) and this highway from the northeast corner of Jo Fosters lot is 4 poles at the west end and 5 poles wide at the east end, where it comes into the highway coming from the south west corner of Jo Sayres lot, and this amendment is bounded on all sides with highways and common land. No 48 lies in the vacancy between Jo Sayres and Jo Fosters lot and is bounded east north and south by highways, and west by Jo Fosters, and this amendment falling short of its complement of land we laid as a part of it a piece of land at the bottom of William Whites lane, and it is about 2 rods wide at the north end running up southward to Stephen Pierces land and shoots by eastward near 2 rods and contains about 2 acres. No 49 lies in 2 pieces, one piece lies before David Cooks shop door containing about 2 acres, bounded all round by highways, the other piece lies in the lane before Daniel Browns door and contains about 2 acres, and is bounded west by Mitchels land, north by Tim Browns land, east by the highway, the south end coming almost to a point.

PAGE 319. No 50 lies on the south side of Josiah Piersons land that lies on the country road as you go to East Hampton, running the whole length of his front leaving him a 2 pole highway against his bars and a 2 pole highway at the east end joining to Mr David Piersons land and contains about $3\frac{1}{2}$ acres. The amendment No 51 lies in 2 piece, one pieces lies by Elnathan Pains house and is bounded south and west by highway, and north by Elisha Halseys land, the east end comes almost to a point just westward of Pains house, and contains 3 acres more or less, the other piece lies in Swan Creek lane at Meacox, containing about 1 acre and $\frac{3}{4}$ more or less bounded west by Mr Elisha Pain, north by Daniel Skelleger, east by the highway, and south by the beach, and it is agreed upon by us the layers out that the Indian or Mulatto houses that stand upon any of the above lots or amendments, the owners of them shall have liberty to move them off if they cant agree with the owners of the land. And from the consideration of the situation of and the difference in respect to quality of various pieces of land we had to lay out we found it impracticable to lay the amendments so that No 1 should be drawn with No 1 in the lots & No 2 with No 2 &c, but have disposed them in the following manner,

NOTES ON THE SURVEY OF THE LITTLE SOUTH DIVISION.

The report of the survey of the Little South Division, for its explicit minuteness, may challenge comparison with anything of the kind recorded in Suffolk County. But after the lapse of more than a hundred years, it is not surprising that most of the landmarks should have become obliterated, and the difficulty of identifying the various lots and amendments can only be appreciated by those who have attempted a similar task. The information contained in the following notes has been gained by a personal visit to each of the localities named, by a careful examination and comparison of old deeds and other documents, and from data furnished by aged persons of retentive memory and careful observation.

The pages given below correspond with the printed pages.

Notes on page 208. The highway from "Abram Pierson's to Wainscott" is the one leading east from Sagg street, south of the homestead late of Caleb Pierson, deceased, (now of Hiram S. Rogers.) Lots 1 and 2 are now owned by A. Strong and heirs of Levi Hedges. Lots 3 and 4 are part of what was lately the "poor-house farm," as is also "Ammi Flint's and Silvanus Toppings land" or homestead.

PAGE 209. Ammi Flint's 2 pole highway is now closed. The piece of land at bottom of lane at Meacox now belongs to the "Methodist Association." Daniel Howell's house stood about half way between the country road and Edward Howell's house at Poxabog. "Paul Pierson's lot" is the corner of Sagg road and Country road. The 2 pole highway is closed. "The highway to Sag-Harbor" is the continuation of Sagg street. No 6 is now the homestead of the heirs of Malines Osborn.

PAGE 210. Edward Howell lived where his descendent Edward H. now lives. The road by the pond is the one by the house of Thomas Tyndal. Lot 8 is now owned by him. David Hand lived on the homestead of the late Theron Hand. The roads by the orchard are closed. John Norris lived where Stephen Topping now lives.

PAGE 211. The land mentioned as Daniel Topping's and Benjamin Sayre's is now owned by Horatio G. Sayre. "The highway from Nathan Norrises to Daniel Moores" is now known as "Norris lane." Nathan Norris lived where Henry Howell now lives. The road at south end of Great South Division lots is now called "Cook's lane," it runs from the road from Sagg to Sag-Harbor, on the north side of Poxabog pond, west to the Turnpike. Daniel Moore lived on north side of Cook's lane, at the head of "Norris lane" or road running north from homestead of Henry Howell. Ammi Flint lived on north side of Cook's lane, about 50 rods north-west of Pox-abog pond. "Ammi Flints and Dr. Tarbills land" is now Lester Bennett's.

PAGE 212. Brushy plain is the tract north of residences of Dr. John L. Gardiner and Wm. Gardiner. The road by Joshua Howell's is Lumber lane. Joshua Howell's house was on west side of said lane, on the place now owned by William S. Morris, opposite to the house of Samuel Hildreth, it was torn down about 6 years since. "Widow Toppings door" was where Dr. Levi D. Wright now lives.

PAGE 213. The Parsonage land was the homestead now owned by Wm. H. H. Rogers and land adjoining. The Presbyterian church stands on Lot 21. Lot 22 is owned by heirs of Wm. Fordham. Joshua Howell's mill was where the mill now stands. The "road from S-W corner of Maltbies lot to S-W corner of Parsonage land" is the road on east side of the Methodist church lot, running to Sagg road by Charles Henry Topping's machine shop. The 2 pole highway to Zachariah Sandford's lot is the continuation of Butter lane, or road to depot. Tim. Halsey's house is where Oliver Halsey now lives. The "road by Wheaton's house" ran south from Sagg road, just east of homestead of John F. Youngs, it is now closed. The school house stood in the road between the homesteads of James L. Haines and Wm. H. H. Rogers. The Methodist church is on Lot 24.

PAGE 214. Lots 25-27 lie between houses of John F. Youngs and Oliver Halsey. Zachariah Sandford's lot is now Jeremiah Schellenger's. No. 28 is at entrance to Bridge-Hampton St., and owned by Elisha Howell and others. Corwith's lot is the old Corwith homestead on west side of Snake Hollow road. Thomas Cooper's land is now homestead of Jetur Bishop.

PAGE 215. Jesse Howell's probably now homestead of Chas. A. Peirson, south side of Railroad. Widow Moore's lot is now owned by Elbert Rose. David Cook's is now Albert Halsey's homestead. The highway south of Tho. Cooper's land is now closed. The road from south-west corner of Cooper's land is the road north of Herman Woodruff's by Jetur Bishop's. Nathan Halsey lived where Phineas Terry now lives, north of depot. Lots 30-34 include homestead of James M. Halsey and land north. "Windmill hill" is a little west of Noah Halsey's and gives the name to land in vicinity. Jeremiah Halsey's land was east of highway running by Orlando Hand's to Scuttle Hole road, and south of the Harbor road.

PAGE 216. David Woodruff's land is now farm of heirs of Silas Corwith. Nathaniel Woodruff lived east of the present homestead of Elias W. The highway from Ebenezer Edwards is probably the one running north from Orlando Hand's to Scuttle Hole road. The highway to Millstone is the one running north from Elias Woodruff's to James Edwards'. Millstone swamp was so called from the fact that one of the millstones for the first mill in this town was procured there. The road from Samuel Jones' corner to Millstone swamp ran originally through the hollow by Elias Woodruff's house. The pond by Samuel Johnes' door is the one south-east from house of Hon. Stephen Haines; the house stood on the east side of the pond; this house and land was given to Samuel Johnes 3d by his father, Samuel 2d, in 1716, see 2d book of deeds, p. 590; the land was granted to Samuel Johnes 1st by town in 1687, and was near lot No. 8 in 40 acre division, see Vol. 2, printed records, p. 121. Lots 37-39 are now part of farm of Stephen Haines, south side of Harbor road. The burying place is south-west of Stephen Haines' house.

PAGE 217. The land spoken of as "Ludlams millstone swamp or house" was purchased by Anthony Ludlam of its original owners, and was Lot 24 in the 40 acre division, see Vol. 2, printed records, p. 172. In 1753 it was sold by Samuel Ludlam to his son Anthony; it is now owned by Hon. Henry P. Hedges, see page 233 (original) of this volume. The lot in Great South Division belonging to Tim. Woodruff's heirs is probably in Lot No. 20 of that division. The lots 40-43 now belong to Stephen Haines. The lot at Meacox now belongs to Nathan Post.

G. Cook, deceased. "Stratton's lane" is the road east of said homestead. Mathew Jagger lived where Alanson Cook now lives. Fithian Halsey probably lived where George Strong now lives. "The new meeting house" was erected about 1753, by the New Light movement, so called, it stood on south side of the country road, nearly opposite the west end of the Hay Ground burying place. Abram Rose lived on the present homestead of Elbert Rose. Lot 47 is now owned by Charles Doxy, the roads around it are now closed. Lots 43-50 are now owned by Mathew Hildreth, Esq., and were purchased by John Hildreth of the original owners. The "main highway" is Meacox street running east and west. Jonah Tarbell lived where Thomas Cooper now lives. Thomas Cooper lived on north side of the main street west of the old Hildreth homestead, lately torn down. Elisha Howell lived where Mrs. Chatfield now lives. Elias Cook's 2 pole highway is now closed. Lot 51 is now east part of farm of John Squires' heirs, at mill pond head. Eber White lived on lot about 40 rods north of road leading from mill pond head to Sag-Harbor, and on east side of road running north to Deerfield, his house-lot was on Lot No. 44, of 30 acre division, (see page 24 of this book and page 164 of Vol. II, printed records), it is now the north part of farm of heirs of Silvanus Squires. Ebenezer White lived on homestead now of David R. Halsey, at mill pond head. The road to Eber White's house is closed. Elisha Halsey's house stood on the south-west corner of the farm of Asher M. Benedict, on road from mill pond head to Sag-Harbor. Widow Topping's corner was the south-west corner of Herman Halsey's home lot.

PAGE 219. John Kenner's was a little west of house now of Charles Rogers, at Hay Ground. Lupton's orchard is in the woods about $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile north of Charles Terbell's house. Amendments 5-8 probably lie on the north side of road from mill pond head to Sag-Harbor, and east of homestead of Albert Squires. Amendments 9-14 lie west of homestead of Charles Terbell. Edmund Northgate lived just east of house now of Capt. Harvey Hallock.

PAGE 220. The amendments 9 and 10 lie east of homesteads of David R. and Lemuel Halsey, and the road from "Hay Ground hollow" runs along their east bounds. Elnathan Payne's house is now the homestead of Robert Squires, or heirs of John Squires.

PAGE 221. No 15 and 16 cannot be identified. Stanborough's lot is next west of the house of Mrs. Nancy Goodale, and is now owned by heirs of David Hedges Sandford. In 1762 it was owned by John Stanborough, see page 339, original, of this book. No 17 is now the home lot of Mr. Jones Rogers, at 7 ponds. The 4 pole highway is now closed, it ran south just east of the house of Charles Hildreth. Daniel Hildreth's lot is now the homestead of Daniel Hildreth, his grandson. Joseph Hildreth's house was west and opposite to the house of Daniel Phillips. Flax pond point is north of the pond farthest east.

PAGE 222. No 17 is north of the new house of Wm. Halsey. The 6 rod highway is the one running north into the woods from the house of Daniel Hildreth. Amendments 20-23 form the triangular piece of land owned by Wm. Sayre, Joseph Horton and heirs of D. Hedges Sandford. Ichabod Sayre's close is the homestead of Barnard Archibald, it was originally owned by Joshua Barnes and he sold it to Ichabod Sayre in 1706. Abner Howell's land is the farm of Thomas Archibald, it was sold to Josiah H., father of Abner, in 1704, by Edward Howell. Amendments 24-28 are now the farm of Gerardus L. Drake. Samuel Bishop's close is now the land of Samuel Austin and Edward Horton. It was sold to Sam. Bishop by Joshua Barnes, 1706, afterwards sold by Bishop to Elias Pelletreau, by him to Barnard Archibald. Jones' ditch, still standing, is at the south end of the cleared land belonging to the heirs of Jonathan Pithian, north of G. L. Drake's farm.

PAGE 223. John Bishop's close is part of Joshua Elliston's farm. It was sold to Ephraim Hildreth by Zebulon Howell, 1727. No. 29 is now the farm of Lewis Jagger. Elias Foster's land or close is now part of the farm of George W. Whitaker, south of house. It originally belonged to Francis Sayre, and was sold by Thomas Sayre to Abraham Howell, 1720. Patience, widow of Abraham Howell, left it to Elias Foster, eldest son of Thomas F., 1756, by him sold to James or Samuel Jagger. No. 31 is north of Uriah Lane's farm.

PAGE 224. No. 32 is the triangular piece of land now owned by John Mulford, east side of North Sea road by edge of woods, it was bought by Nathaniel Jagger of Zephaniah Rogers, 1784. Lemuel Wicks' close "as you go to millstone brook" is part of Bartlett Robinson's farm at Tuckahoe. David Raynor's lot is the farm late of Charles Payne, deceased, (now Elisha Hubbard.) It is mentioned in 1703 as "Jonathan Raynors land at Seponack old ground," it was sold to Elias Pelletreau by James Raynor, 1812, who sold it to Jeremiah Topping, from whom it was bought by Charles Payne. "Thomas Scotts" is now the homestead of heirs of Capt. Edward White, at Seponack. Millstone brook road is the one running by Edgar Sandford's and Tuckahoe school house to Millstone brook. Amendments 34-41 all butt west on Shinnecock hills.

PAGE 225. Maple tree hole is a pool of water a little south-east of the house of the late Capt. Edward White. Widow Lupton's is now the farm of Lewis Scott, east of Capt. Edward White's. Amendments 39, 40, 41, 42, or the greater part of them, were bought of original owners by John Bishop, sold by his heirs to James Fanning, and is now farm of Wm. Robinson. No 43 and 44 are now farm of Edgar Sandford. Tuckahoe school house probably stands on No 35. No 45 is part of farm of Charles Harlow, south of Railroad. The parsonage land is probably part of farm of Mathew Cross' heirs, (see page 39 of this book.) No 47 is the homestead of David Terry, at Tuckahoe. Reeves' land is north part of Bartlett Robinson's farm. No. 46 is farm late of John Porter, now Wm. Nicoll's. Jo. Foster's lot probably north part of Henry Estine's homestead.

PAGE 226. Jo. Sayre's lot probably part of Charles Rishop's homestead. Wm. White's lane is the road running north from country road about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile east of Main street, by house of heirs of David White's heirs. The 2 acres at bottom are part of farm of Horace Fanning, and were sold by the original owners to Wm. Woolly, 1764. Stephen Peirce's land is lot John Fournier, south of Railroad. No 49 cannot be identified. No. 50 lies on the north side of the road to East-Hampton, some 80 rods east of Sagg street. Elnathan Payne's house is now the homestead of the heirs of John Squires, at mill pond head.

Southampton July 11 1763. A difference arose between Samuel Jagger and Thomas Jennings about some meadow at a place called matuck swamp whether it was divided or not, and they mutually chose Ichabod Sayre Thomas Scott and William Jones, but when they came there they could not agree the three men should judge upon the same, but said Jennings offered to said Jagger to stick up stakes and give said Jagger the choice of sides which said Jagger complied with, and said Jagger chose the east side toward matuck swamp, and on the south side of the creek to Thomas Scotts meadow on West neck. PAGE 326. Southampton December 12 1763. It was agreed on by the Proprietors of Pine neck that William Jones Silas Halsey and Jeremiah Post should divide the amendment to the lots of Pine Neck, which we did in the manner following, we run a highway of eight rods wide in the middle of the neck between the two roads that goes down said neck from Quogue road down to the head of the great pond to a large Pine tree which we marked three sides, to be four rods each way from the marks given and to continue down Southerly to the butt of the lots formerly laid out, and a highway of four rods wide across the Butts of the old lots from Josiah Fosters lot which is No 23 eastward to Nathan Herricks Jonah and John Halseys which is No 19, and then we measured the east side as the path now goes on the east side and found it to be 497 rods to the north side of the great pond of which we divided into six lots beginning at Tianah, No 1 containing 160 rods in breadth, drawn by Elisha Howell Silas Halsey John Post Nathaniel Halsey & Cornelius Halsey, or those proprietors that drew No 20 in the old Division in the said neck. Lot No 2 70 rods wide drawn by Joseph and Isaac Post. Lot No 3 is 42 rods wide drawn by Josiah Foster. Lot No 4 is 48 rods wide drawn by John Joseph and Isaac Post. Lot No 5 is 80 rods wide drawn by Stephen Foster Silas Halsey and Wm Jones. No 6 is 97 rods wide drawn by John and Jonah Halsey and Nathan Herrick, the lines between these lots running east and west exact from the bay to the middle highway afore mentioned, the Lot No 1 having a passing road through No 2 for conveniency of landing, and a passing road shall be allowed from the great highway at the head of the great pond eastward to the bay through Lot No 5, and then we measured the west side in the path from Josiah Fosters old fence up to the lower Quogue road 120 rods and divided it into six lots, the lines of division being east and west, we began to No at Quogue lower road with No 1 and down southward in course to 6, each proprietor drawing the same number on the west side as they draw on the east side, the said lots to run to the great highway east and west to the Wesuek creek except No 2 which is not to go over the small creek that heads in No 1. No 1 is 20 rods wide at the path as the path goes. No 2 is 26 rods wide. No 3 is 22 rods wide. No 4 is 20 rods wide. No 5 is 16 rods wide. No 6 is 16 rods wide, and it is covenanted by the proprietors that whatever proprietor shall fence any part on either side of the neck he shall cut a sufficient road round his inclosure for the Proprietors to pass and repass except he incloseth unto the great highway.

PAGE 329. Southampton November 27th 1764. At the request of the trustees of the town of Southampton we the Commissioners for said town by name Henry Howell David Halsey and William Jones, have laid out in pursuance of an act of General assembly made for that purpose, a highway or passing road at the fish cove at North sea, on the east side through Samuel Jennings land 58 rods, 20 feet wide from common high water upward, beginning at the town land at the south end appraised at 8s, also on ye same side through John Haines land the same distance from the water upward 18 rods long appraised at 2s 6d, on the west side beginning at Conklings stone on Jackson Scotts land 21½ rods long from common high water 20 feet wide upward appraised at 5s 10d. Then through John Haines land 16 rods long the same width as above appraised at 4s 6d, then through Henry HARRISES land 11¾ rods long the same width as above appraised at 6s, then through the widow Haines land 15 rods long 20 feet wide from the edge of the water at common low water, appraised at 10s 8d and then through Henry Harris and Samuel Jennings land 28 rods long to the going over on to the island at the South east point of said island 20 feet wide from the edge of the water at common low water, appraised at 18s 4d, all which land shall be improved as usual by those that have the land in possession and enjoy all the privileges that they did before so long as they are peaceable and don't molest the town of Southampton in passing and repassing and drawing fish and saving them. But when they shall molest the proprietors in the above privileges then it shall and may be lawful for the commissioners to lay open said highway through the above enclosures. And that the land together with the damages which the town buy of Joseph Jacobs is valued by us the jury at sixpence the rod whether they buy more or less, the town has taken of Jacobs land along by the side of the fence called Scotts fence, now in the possession of Samuel Jennings on the east side of the fish cove 12 rods and 20 feet long up to the plain open road that goes round said cove which amounts to 6 shillings and one half penny for a highway from the plain road down to the acre of land reserved by the town at the head of the fish cove for the benefit of the proprietors, and the whole of the money ordered by the Justices and jury for us to pay in the town's behalf is paid by us the commissions for said town.

Southampton April 1st 1753. Whereas the Proprietors of North Sea (as by a covenant under their hands may more fully appear) did hire and employ Jackson Scott and Abram Halsey to lay out and lot a certain tract and parcel of land situate within the said North sea bounds bounded on the Southeast by the Town line, Southwest by David Haines and other laid out land, and according to the trust reposed in us and the PAGE 335.] power given us by the said proprietors we proceeded to the work in the following manner: We began at the westward side of the said land by the said fence and laid out a piece of land for an amendment to two lots, and on the east ward side of the said amendment we laid out the Lot No 1 23 poles on the Town line and 15 poles wide at the north west end, and E of No 1 we laid No 2 22 poles wide on the town line, and 14 at the northward end, and E of No 2 we laid an highway of 3 poles wide where the path now is, and it is to be equal on each side of the path and to run as the path runs, and then we laid out another highway where the fish pond path is of three poles wide, also to be equal on each side of the path and to go as the path now is, between which two highways we laid out four lots fronting at each end upon the said highways, as No 3 No 4 No 5 and No 6; No 3 is 15 poles and $\frac{1}{4}$ wide by the middle highway, and 41 poles by the fish pond highway, and No 4 lies Southward of No 3 and is 9 poles wide by the middle highway, and 23 by the fish pond highway, and No 5 lies Southward of No 4 and is 9 poles wide by the middle highway and 21 by the fish pond highway, and and No 6 lies by the Town line and is 5 poles wide by the middle highway, and 14 poles by the fish pond highway, but the breadth of these 4 lots is measured as the paths now run and not on a square, and the above said amendment of land lying between No 1 and the old laid out land we laid to two lots No 3 and Na 4 to belong equally to each lot, and then we laid out six lots more which we called poor lots to be drawn with the aforesaid six good Lots and are of the same No with them only the six poor lots are witnessed with an X thus to each No and No 1 in the poor lots is to be drawn with No 3 in the good lots, and No 2 in the poor lots is to be drawn with No 4 in the good lots and No 3 in the poor lots with No 5 in the good lots, and No 4 in the poor lots with No 6 in the good lots, and No 5 in the poor lots with No 2 in the good lots, and No 6 in the poor lots with No 1 in the good lots. The poor lot No 1 by the south line is 20 poles wide, No 2 by the south line is 18 poles, and each of these lots are 39 poles long, and No 1 is 1 pole wide at the N end No 3 is 11 poles wide at the E end and 2 poles at the N end. No 4 is 11 poles wide at the S end and 2 at the N end, No 5 is 12 at the S end and 2 poles & $\frac{1}{2}$ at the N end and No 6 lies on the N side of the fish pond road and is 20 poles & $\frac{1}{2}$ wide at the east end and 7 poles at the W end, and 30 poles long by the said highway, there being no open highway to No 1 therefore there is and shall be liberty of a passing way to No 1 across the S end of No 2 of 20 feet wide so long as it shall be necessary for the use of No 1 and no longer, and then we laid out a blank lot on the N-E side of the fish pond highway containing about three acres of land or thereabouts*

Moriehes July 22 1768 Whereas the antient Boundaries of the meadow on the South Beach commonly known by the name of Cupsoge long point are all lost, we the present Proprietors or owners do mutually agree that William Jones of Southampton & Nathaniel Landen of Brookhaven shall make a new Division of the same, now know ye that we the said William Jones & Nathaniel Landen having laid out the said meadow into eight lots agreeable to the first survey with the bounds & numbers beginning at the west side of the said Cupsoge Long Point near the head of the meadow at high water mark, and setting off lot No 1 three chains and five links wide upon a due east course, and the course of the line between the first [and] second lots from the bound at the head to a stake at the Bottom near the bay is north two degrees west, and No 2 No 3 and No 4 are three chains wide each at the head, No 5 is one chain and thirty five links in breadth and the PAGE 350] course is north seventeen degrees to the head of the Creek. No 6 is bounded near the stack yard and adjoins to the creek upon the east side and running north seventy three degrees east eight chains for the breadth of the lot and the course between the lots is north nine degrees east. No 7 is eight chains seventy one links in breadth at the head and course to the bay north two degrees east. No 8 is fifteen chains twenty seven links, and the course to the bay is north and runs down to the springs, and it is further agreed by us the said owners for each proprietor to take the whole of his meadow together according to his right, which Capt Josiah Smiths whole breadth from his east bound No 7 upon a west line seventeen chains eleven links to his west bounds at head Mathew Smiths breadth at the head three chains and 85 links, David Howells whole breadth one chain 50 links, William Smiths breadth three chains 3 links and half, John Post John Haven and John Tuthill being in partnership in the first lot agree to divide across the lot John Post taking his share at the head Southward of the cove, John Haven to join the cove upon the north side of the cove, John Tuthill at the north end is now divided. Capt Josiah Smiths 5th lot is three chains 77 links wide at the north end upon the west side of the creek. Mathew Smiths lot is four chains 59 links, David Howells lot is one chain 61 links, Doctor William Smiths* is four chains

* Dr. William Smith was son of Nathaniel Smith, whose father Richard was the original Patantee of Moriches. Dr. Smith first came to Southampton as pupil of Rev. Sylvanus White; he studied medicine in Philadelphia, and settled in this place in 1759, having purchased the homestead now belonging to Wm. S. Pelletreau. After a successful practice, his life was cut short at 36 links, and that each proprietor shall have a cartway through the others meadow to cart their hay upon special occasion.

PEGE 377. Southampton October 6 1773. Whereas we John Howell and Timothy Howell had a lot of land lying in Paugunquogue lying on the west side of the long point, part of which lot is fenced in from the bottom as far northward as Elias Howells house, and that part only undivided and the Division is as followeth, John Howell owning two thirds and Timothy Howell the other third, we laid it into three lots cross ways from Elisha Howells fence westward to Elias Howells fence, and then we cast lots, and the lower lot next to the bay fell to Timothy Howell and the two upper lots to John Howell. and it is agreed upon between the parties that John Howell shall suffer his brother Timothy Howell his heirs and assigns forever a passing road through his land next to Elisha Howells fence to pass and repass forever. This Division made in presence of John Howell Jr and Charles Howell. Recorded the day and year above written.

Southampton October 6 1773. Whereas Daniel Howell of Southold and William Jones of Southampton being mutually chosen between Josiah Goodale on the one part and James Fanning the third on the other part to settle some fence between said Fannings meadow & said Goodales upland, also a line between the westernmost lot of meadow on long neck at aukaboge which Goodale bought of Joshua Sayre & the next lot west which said Fanning bought of his uncle Thomas Fanning, and having seen their deeds, examined their evidence, and heard their allegations, do judge and determine that the fence shall stand as it now is and that the line of Division between the lots shall stand as we have now staked it out, which south stake stands ten paces westward of the old spring bank, from where ye tide floweth without the fence, at the north end or bottom of the said hammock or island the stake stands twenty paces east from the northwest corner of the upland, also we do determine that both parties shall sign their names to this award, and it shall be returned upon the Town Records upon said Fannings cost, also all the cost of the arbitration said Fanning shall pay, which is one pound thirteen shillings.

First we began in the Great North Division lot and we measured off for Zebulon Jennings or wife thirty poles off of the north end of the lot adjoining Anthony Haines, And then we measured off of the same lot for Susanah Haines twenty two poles joining to Zebulon Jennings on the north.

In the second place we proceeded to a piece of woodland called Toppings land and measured off of the east end for Zebulon Jennings 9 poles joining to Benjamin Sayre, and then we measured off for Susanah Haines eight poles off of the same lot joining to Zebulon Jennings on the east.

In the third place we came to the fish cove lot of woodland and we measured off for Zebulon Jennings nineteen poles off of the north end joining to Deacon Thomas Cooper, and then we measured off of the same lot for Susannah Haines eleven poles joining to Zebulon Jennings on the north. (Probably in lot 44.)

In the fourth place we came to a piece of woodland up by the old mill path und measured off for Zebulon Jennings ten poles off of the north end joining to Hugh Gelston, and nine poles to Susannah Haines in the same lot joining to Zebulon northward.

From there we came and viewed three pieces of woodland more, one small piece lying by the fish cove path, said to be an acre & half joining to Anthony Haines on the west, and another small piece lying by the fresh pond joining to Henry Harris on the north and a piece lying at a place called little neck called five acres be it more or less, and the Division we make of these last three pieces is in the following manner, namely, our judgment is that the three daughters of the above said family (their names not here mentioned) that takes that woodland lying in little neck shall give to that daughter that takes piece lying by the fish cove path two pounds ten shillings in hard cash or equivalent, and that these three daughters shall give to that daughter that takes that piece of woodland by the fresh pond shall [pay] twenty shillings in hard cash or equivalent.

Then we proceeded to lay out one hundred acres for a blank lot at the River head bounded on the east by Quogue purchase and on the west by little River, and to extend so far south as to make one hundred acres, also we reserve ten pole wide from the blank lot on the east side of Little River to the Great Pond, and six pole wide on the west side of said Little River from the Great Pond down to the Cedar Swamp where it empties into Little River reserving the privilege of Daming and drowning the lands on Little River to the towns use, the path from the going over at the River head up to the Great Pond to remain as it now is until otherwise ordered by the trustees. Further we lay out a two pole highway from the west part of the Great Pond where is most convenient, to run a west course to the west bounds of Southampton reserving the timber to the owners of the lots. Further we reserve that part of the stream at Bever Dam which lies in Toppings purchase with all the priviledges of diging daming and drowning laud to the town's use. The road continued from Bever dam bounded Southwardly by the old division land and running a westerly course as the path now goes to the west bounds of the town being six pole wide. Then we laid another road begining at the Country Road called the Brick kiln path from Speunk and runing northwardly as the path now goes through the brick kilns until it comes to the west bounds of Southampton being six poles wide, the timber to the owners of said lots where the road may cross, and all antient paths or roads to remain as they now are until otherwise ordered by the trustees. Then we reserved a piece of laud in Toppings Purchase near the Bald Hill begining at a oak sapplin on the east side of the swamp near where they now dig clay and running south to a Oak tree near the path 13 poles, then running west 26 degrees south 13 poles to a white oak spire, from thence runing north 12 degrees west 16 poles and 4 foot, and from thence to the north east corner the above land is reserved for the use of water and digging clay and the timber for burning brick and other purposes.

Further we proceeded to lay out a blank lot at Setuck being as the path now goes 167 pole to the western bounds, and the east line of the blank lot being the west line of the 49th lot, said blank lot containing by estimation 370 acres. Then we began at Bever dam and we made 49 lots as follows giving the weadth of the lots as the path now goes at the south end of the lots, the lines of said lots all running parralel with the line which divides Qougue and Toppings Purchase. The following is the No and weadth of each lot. The lot No 1 lying joining on the east side to the mill pond at Bever dam.

PAGE 416. Whereas We John Sandford and David Halsey being elected and chosen by the trustees of the Town of Southampton to lay out or lot a certain Tract of land in Quogue Purchase at our discretion and pursuant to the trust reposed in us and the power by the trustees given us we proceeded to the work in the following manner viz. We began at Tiana and run along the South Country Road to Beverdam, from thence a direct line to the Riverhead, from thence Southwardly along the Quogue Road about three miles Southward of the Riverhead where a corner stands, and from thence a due East line running to the head of Red Creek Pond and from thence Southwardly to Tiana, bounded east by the Canoe place Division and west by a direct line from Bever dam to the Riverhead which divides Quogue from Toppings Purchase then we laid out a blank lot at Tiana running along the South Country Road as the path now goes one hundred and ninety five rods to a corner fixed marked on the east side with the letter B, and No 1 on the west side, from thence running a due north line to the late Division, from thence eastward along said division to the Canoe place division, and from thence to the place of beginning at Tiana. Then we laid out a blank lot at Bever dam running along the South Country Road as said road now runs eastward seventy five rods, from thence north until it strikes the line between Quogue and Toppings Purchase, from thence along said line to the Bever dam, it being a Gore piece, then we reserved a tract of land at Riverhead containing fifty acres for the use of the proprietors in said purchase running along the Quogue Road so far south as to make fifty acres, between said Quogue road and the line between Quogue and Toppings Purchase it being a Gore Piece of land, and then we laid out thirty nine lots in the following manner, we began with No 1 westward of the blank lot at Tiana the east side joining said blank lot eastward, and No 2 lies westward of No 1 &c. The lines of said lots all running due north to the late division excepting 5 or 6 lots which but on the blank lot at the Riverhead and on the line between Quogue and Topping Purchase. The following is the width of said lots along the South Country Road,

No 1 is 105 poles wide		No 20 is 37 poles wide

PAGE 417. Furthermore we reserve the streams at Quantuck aspatuck and Bever dam with the Privilidge of Mill to Dam or Drown the land or dig earth anywhere in said lots where it shall be most convenient for the above purpose to be to the use of the Proprietors of said Purchase.

Furthermore we lay out a six pole highway from Tiana to Beverdam, also we laid out a six pole highway eastward of Quantuck beginning at the South Country Road as the path now runs to the Riverhead reserving the timber in said road to the owners of said lots where it crosses said lots.

Furthermore we reserve a two pole highway from Red Creek Pond across the north end of said lots, running westward to the road which runs from the River head to Quogue.

Furthermore we lay out a two pole highway from Quogue road at the south end of the blank lot at the Riverhead running westerly across to the little River reserving the Timber on the two last roads to the owners of said lots.

Furthermore the Ketchabonnuck Path that goes to the Riverhead from the South Country Road to where it comes into the Quogue Road we lay out four rods wide as the Path now goes reserving the Timber to the owners of said lots, and all other antient Roads or paths to remain as they now are in Quogue Purchase until otherwise ordered by the Trustees.

Thus far we Proceeded and finished our work this 3d day of July A. D. 1782.

PAGE 474. Suffolk County. Pursuant to application from Jeremiah Post and Henry Peirson being a majority of the Commissioners of the Highways for the town of Southampton in the County aforesaid to us, we issued warrants to the Sheriff of Suffolk County to summon twelve freeholders to appear at the house of Hugh Gelston Jr in the township of Southampton & County aforesaid to determine the true value & appraise the damages to John Cook of Southampton aforesaid, of a certain piece of land laid out by said commissioners for a public highway off the land of the said John Cook at a place commonly called Kelly's pond, in the township of Southampton aforesaid, lying on the south side of said pond and on the east side of a lane running to said pond, being four rods wide at said pond and running thirteen rods up said lane to a point, containing twenty six poles of ground. The said jurors appearing and being duly sworn to determine the true value & appraise the damage to the said John Cook, and the said jurors having viewed the premises &c return their verdict that the value of said land & the damage to the said John Cook is four pounds six shillings.

Given under our hands this 16th day of October 1795.

* Dr. Ebenezer Sage, who was for many years a prominent citizen of Sag-Harbor, was born at Portland, Ct., 1755. He studied the profession of medicine, and went to East-Hampton, L. I., in 1789, where he practiced thirteen years. He married Ruth, daughter of Dr. Wm Smith, of Southampton, in 1790, and went to his native place and remained five years, and from thence removed to Sag-Harbor in 1801. He was elected to Congress in 1809, and served three terms. He was a member of the convention that formed the State Constitution in 1821, and also held the office of Master in Chancery. He died Jan. 20, 1834, and his wife Ruth died in May, 1831, aged 66. Their remains, after resting many years in the old burying ground at Sag-Harbor, were removed to the Oakland Cemetery, Sag-Harbor. He was a man of elevated character, and utterly above the craft and chicanery which too often characterizes politicians. Although he had the faculty of expressing his thoughts in writing with great facility, he had not the command of words that makes the orator, and in his Congressional career, and as a member of the Constitutional Convention, he was never absent from his seat, never failed to vote on every question, and never made a speech.

He was a descendent of David Sage, who came to this country from Wales about 1660, died 1704, and is buried in the old Cemetery at Middletown, Ct. David left two sons, John and Timothy, the latter had a son David, who was the father of the subject of the above sketch. Dr. Ebenezer left one son, Dr. John Sage, many years a physician in Sag-Harbor, and now living. Dr. Sage lived in the old gambled roofed house east of the Episcopal church, and north side of Sage St., which was named in his honor.

proprietors of West neck, have agreed to divide the meadow in said neck in the manner following, that is to say we have for ourselves and heirs & assigns forever agreed that Elias White shall have the first lot which is situated on George's side to extend from the spring to a certain stump which divides James Jaggers amendment from the said Elias White. (2d) It is agreed that Joshua Sayre have the second lot which lies on the east side of Jonah's cove and Wicks cove together with the amendments, both of which adjoin the Great Point. It is to be understood however that Mr Sayre has all the meadow lying on the west side of Wicks cove from the head as far south as the dam, and all the meadow on the east side of said cove from the head to Millstone Brook Creek. (3d) It is agreed that James Jagger & Henry Harris have the meadow lying on the west side of Jonah's cove, and all the Wicks point together with an amendment lying between Joshua Sayres & Elias White, (4th) It is agreed that the heirs of Christopher Lupton have all meadow lying in the Rock Cove, 5 The parties further agree to divide the fence, and that every proprietor shall fence his proportion agreeably to such division when made. 6 It is further agreed that the said proprietors shall throw all their meadow into a common pasture on the 5 day of September, yearly and every year. The upland is to be pastured in common as heretofore and for the better fulfilling these presents the parties for themselves their heirs and assigns forever have hereunto set their hands this date above written.

NOTES ON INDIAN LEASE.—The above lease was given at the time of the second Indian Deed, which may be found in the 2d volume of printed Town Records, page 177, which should be read in connection with it. The north-west and south boundaries are sufficiently defined by nature. As regards the east boundary, "James Cooper's close" is the farm late in possession of James Sayre, deceased; and the north-west corner mentioned is where there is an angle in the fence not far from the south line of the farm of heirs of Mathew Cross. This land was originally laid out for John Laughton, who sold it to Aaron Burnet, 1685, (see Red book of Deeds, page 192,) who sold it to James Cooper, 1697, (see volume 2, printed Records, pages 275 and 335,) who gave it to his son James, 1721, (see Yellow book of deeds, page 669.)

"Jonathan Raynor's land at Sebonack old ground" is now the farm of Erastus Hubbard, north side of Tuckahoe street.

The "ware house" was owned by William Barker, Esq., who was a merchant and prominent man in the town; it stood at what is still called "Barker's Island."

The tract of land and meadow which is just north of the western end of Shinnecock hills fence, was originally owned by Richard Barrett, who sold it to Thomas Goldsmith, in 1678. Thomas Goldsmith sells to Wm. Barker "an island or hammock of meadow at a place called the warehouse at Seponack bounded west by meadow of Daniel Sayre, N by Seponack bay, E & S by commons of Southampton," (see Red book of deeds, page 11.)

The word "Niamug," the Indian name for the Canoe Place, signifies "between the fishing places."

An agreement made between Wm Rogers and Henry Topping persons appointed by the Trustees, and James Nickerson & Aaron Fithian Respecting the establishing a road from the land of Phineas Payne, through the land of Aaron Fithian along to the Noyac road, and turning gradually the corner easterly, to be twenty feet wide from all incumbrances. The said road as above established, in order to make it more explicit, was described thus. The said road is to lead from the head of the Dam, or rather the head of the spring, to Russel's landing so called, and this we establish as the only road leading as above, and do also give up and relinquish the road which formerly ran through the said Nickersons land. This agreement made the 5th day of January in the year of our Lord 1808.

[Abstract.] David Burnet of Flying Point agrees with the Commissioners of highways that there shall be a passing road from the Comon land to the beach, along by the Cliff, for one year, and the dispute concerning the said road is to be settled by Abraham Miller Jonathan Dayton and Daniel Hedges of East Hampton whose decision is to be decisive. The dispute between said Burnet and Capt Abraham Sayre is also to be left to their decision.

PAGE 537. To all men to whom these presents shall come, We Abraham Miller Daniel Hedges & Jonathan Dayton of the town of East Hampton in the County of Suffolk and State of New York, send greeting, Whereas divers controversies and disputes have lately arisen between David Burnet of the township of Southampton and county aforesaid of the one part and the Trustees of the freeholders & comonalty of the town of Southampton aforesaid, & the Commissioners of highways of the said town of Southampton of the other part, touching and concerning the title to a certain tract of land lying in the township of Southampton aforesaid at a place called Flying Point, and a road through the said land, and whereas for the putting an end to the said controversies and disputes they the said David Burnet & the Trustees and Commissioners of highways aforesaid reciprocally agreed to stand to and abide and perform the award and final determination of us the said Abraham Miller Daniel Hedges and Jonathan Dayton, arbitrators indifferently chosen by the said parties to arbitrate. Now know ye that we the said arbitrators whose names are hereunto subscribed do for the settling amity and friendship between them make and publish this our award, That is to say, first we do award that all controversies & disputes touching the said premises to the day and date of these presents shall cease, and further we do award and determine that the fee of the land is in the said David Burnet, we do also award and determine that in case the said Commissioners of highways shall think proper to lay out a passing road through the said David Burnets land, for the footmen, men on horseback, teams and carriages to pass and repass, twenty feet in breadth, as pointed out to us, beginning at the bars at the northward of the said Burnets house, neer the Bank or Cliff, and runing easterly along the Cliff or Bank until it arrives near said Burnets water fence, and thence to the bars, where the cart road now runs, thence from said bars as the cart road now runs to the east corner of the said Burnets second piece of land, and thence below the Cliff, till it arrives near the creek, or at a place where it is usual for teams now to go up on the said Burnets land, and thence to follow the cart path where it runs to the common land on the beach, said road not to be obstructed in any other way or manner than that of bars with post & rails or gates of a suitable breadth for a team to pass through with a cart, also the rest of all the lands and beach below said road to be laid out by the Commissioners, so to be laid out by the Commissioners aforesaid in the first piece of land by said Burnets house beginning at the edge of the said Burnets meadow, eastward of the point where the foot bridge now stands, runing easterly as far as where the said road is to turn up to the said bars, and no further, and we do award and determine that for and in consideration of the said road and bars, the Commissioners of highways for and in behalf of the town of Southampton shall pay unto the said David Burnet the sum of 12 dollars, and lastly we do award and determine that the said Commissioners for and in behalf of the said town of Southampton pay all the expenses of this arbitration, except that of the said Burnet, he to make no charge against the said town of Southampton, for any charges he has been at. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands & seals on this 18 day of October in the year of our Lord 1804.

being nott only cracked butt too little, it waighes 65 lb, and having no acquaintance in London and having myself often before now bin Employed in bying oyle for your accoumpt by Capt Nath Byfield and Mr John Mico, have made bould to give you this trouble, that you would dispose of this bell for the town aforesd and procure them a good sounding bell that may waigh aboutt 130 lbs and disburss for them what may be needfull besides this bell now sentt and what advance in reason may be proper shall be allowed and paid to your order in Boston upon Receite of such a bell as above said, in so doing you greatly oblige nott onely our town butt myself who though a stranger yett desirous to testefie that I am Sir your assured friend and most humble sarvant.

MATHEW HOWELL.

EAST HAMPTON July ye 25th, 1693.

Received then on board the good Shipe friends Adventure, of Mathew Howell a small Church Bell waighing aboutt sixty five pounds, By and for the proper accompt and resque of the towne of Southampton aforesaid, which I promise to deliver to Mr Walter Mico, mercht In London he paying freight, the dangers of yt Seas and enemies onely excepted, having given two reciepts of this tenure and date the one being acomplished the other is voyed,

I say received per me

CYPRIAN SOUTHACK.

[Endorsed.] A Receipt for the bell that went for England.

LONDON 21st Feb 169 $\frac{3}{4}$

MR MATHEW HOWELL,

Sr—According to your desire I have caused a new bell to be cast & itt proved of a good sound but when I came to enter it I found itt to be prohibited which I could not shipp without ye Lord Treasurers warrant which will be chargeable. There is now a bill in the house of Parliment for ye free exporting of Bells & I believe it will be enacted, if not I will find a waye to hang itt in some ship & send itt you that waye.

SR—I take notice by your letter that you have been Employed by Mr Byfield & Co. to buy oyl for my accompt, I take the opportunity to acquaint you that ye 180 barrels shipt on board the Gilbert & Hester Fra, Harben master from New Yorke, had not 30 faire barrels amongst them, but blaek and red & very fowle with dirt, other men sold upon the Keay when ours were slighted by all that saw them for which reason we are forced to howse them & at great charge, and at last were faine to send them to Holland with an order to sell them for what they could gett, ye other men that shipt off theirs since our sold, & ours remaines there not sold, the people that cure the oyl might help it with more care, & if they will not they will make your oyl in less esteem, and when other countrys improve & make better, yours are worse for when oyls were with you 10lb pr tun they were generally better cewered than they are now, the parcell that came per Capt Southack in November last were pretty tollerable.

SR—haveing this advised, itt remaineth with you to take more care for the future, I had rather have none than such as will not sell because of their badness. I have noe more but that I am your servant.

WALTER MICO.

22d March—of the above said oyls per Capt Harben 134 Bar. of them shipt to Holland where they will not sell by advice a week since, & wee have since given order to have them sett you at any price to put us out of our paine & charge.

Per MR JOHN MICO.

SIR—I have inclosed a copie of Mr Mico's letter wherein I am debter to him ye Summe of 9lb 5s 2d to be paid in England with the interest which your selfe are better acquainted with what is usual than I am and I am in no way to Remit money thither and therefore pray that you would be pleased to pay the same for me and give me a discharge in full from that debt and lett me know what I must pay you in Boston money next Spring att Boston. I send this to the post office att New York where I would pray an answer to be sent by the first you can and I have ordered one to send it to mee. Pray use me as well as you can in itt and accept of a thankful acknowledgement of your care and trouble about ye drumme which proves well but the young man thinks it a very great price, as also for your trouble and charge with kindness to my kinsman John Tayler I shall endeavor to show myselfe grateful as I have ability and opportunity to testifie the same and in ye mean time remain your assured friend & servent,

MATHEW HOWELL.

Southampton December the 10th 1694.

[Endorsed.] A copie of a letter to Capt Byfield about paying for ye bell.

Whereas the meeting house and parsonage want repairing, and ye new bell from England is to be paid for and ye Inhabitants of Sag and Meacox are unwilling to pay anything towards said charge we the said trustees have thought it convenient. [The above fragment was written on back of another document.

The Johnes Family.

Edward Johnes

Edward Johnes, the first of this name in Southampton, came over from England in the fleet with Winthrop, 1631. He was constable in Charlestown, Mass., in 1641. In 1643 he came to this place, and land was granted him as recorded in Vol. I, printed records, p. 33, and his high social position may be known from the prefixes of Mr. and Gentleman attached to his name. His wife was Ann, daughter of Thomas Griggs, of Charlestown. The family mansion, built by him about 1650, is still standing, a venerable relic of the olden time.

Edward Johnes died 1659, and left a son Samuel, who died in 1693, his wife Sarah died 1692, leaving son Samuel, whose name as "Deacon Samuel Johnes" so frequently appears in our Records.

Sam^d Johnes

He was a man of wealth and distinction, and held the position of Constable at a time when that office conferred some honor on its occupant. Samuel also left children Phebe, wife of Josiah Howell, and Ephraim, to whom land was allotted in 1699, died 1723.

Deacon Samuel married Ester, daughter of Capt. Tho. Stephens, who died Jan. 18, 1753, and had children Samuel, who settled in Bridge-Hampton; Stephen, born 1700; Obadiah, born 1715; Timothy, born 1717; William, born 1719; and Elisabeth. Deacon Samuel died in 1760. In 1753 he gave his homestead to his son William, excepting two acres on north side, given to his son Obadiah. William died 1780, and the old homestead was sold about 1800 by his heirs, who removed to the western part of the State. In a deed dated 1787, Obadiah is mentioned as of "Huntington, Long Island."

He was a prominent Whig, and was one of the Committee of safety 1776; like many other prominent citizens, he fled to Connecticut during the Revolution, and settled in Saybrook. His son Thomas, who died 1812, was the last of the name in this village; his wife died in 1836.

Timothy, son of Dea. Samuel, was a graduate of Yale College, 1737, took holy orders and was settled at Morristown, N. J., where for a long time his church was the centre of Presbyterianism in that region. Brainerd speaks of him in the highest terms, and Washington received the Communion from his hands just before the battle of Brandywine. His piety was soon recognized by his Alma Mater by whom he was made a Doctor of Divinity.

Stephen Johnes married Sarah Fitz Randolph, daughter of one of the founders of Princeton College. There are descendants of this branch living in Charlestown and Hydestown, N. J., and also in Philadelphia.

We regret that our limits do not permit us to give a more detailed account of the various branches of this family so prominent in our town for respectability and virtue. But we are pleased to learn that a complete history is now being prepared by Edward R. Johnes, Esq., a descendant of Rev. Dr. Timothy, and a talented and rising member of the New-York Bar.

Sale of Seponack Sedges.

[Abstract.] There having been a controversy between the North Sea Proprietors and the Trustees of Southampton, concerning the Sedges at a place called Seponack, which controversy was referred to James Reeves and Ephraim White, as a confirmation of their decision, the Proprietors of North Sea sell to said trustees, a parcel of Sedge at Seponack, bounded west by a line running between said Proprietors of North Sea and said trustees, south by Seponack Creek, east by Ram Island, north by Seponack gut. Dated Oct. 1, 1724.

NOTES.

PAGE 22. The land laid out for John Cooper is probably where the house of John F. Youngs now stands, on south side of road leading from Snake Hollow to Sagg.

PAGE 28. Moses Culver's home lot is the present home lot of Anthony Jolly, (formerly Nathaniel Jagger's), north side of Hill street, Southampton.

PAGE 47. "John Clark's land" was originally laid out for John Oldfield, before 1680, and purchased from him by Mrs. Ann Phillips, wife of Zerobabel Phillips, who gave it to her daughter, wife of Samuel Clark, 1683.

PAGE 65. From a deed recently discovered, we learn that the land laid out for a parsonage, at head of Creek, was sold to John Reeves, (10½ acres), by Nathan Herrick, Tho. Cooper and Stephen Rogers, as committee for the Parish, 1763. It was then bounded north by amendment 45 Little South Division, east by John Reeves and Lemuel Wick, south by Hackaliah Foster, west by Indian line, price £17, 1s, 3d. This locates the land positively as being now part of farm of Chas. Harlow, just north of farm of Matthew Cross, deceased.

PAGE 150. Heirs of Silas White sold his place, bought of Wilnot, to Lemuel Howell, 1759; from him it went to son Moses Howell, who left it to daughter Charity, wife of Reusaeler Topping. It is now homestead of Jeremiah O. Hedges.

PAGE 369. At the time that the new school house, Dist. No. 16, Southampton, was built, 1857, there was considerable dispute as to whether the district had any claim to the land on which the old school house stood, but a deed was found in the Town Clerk's office, by which William Johnes sells to Isaac Post, Cornelius Halsey, Wm. Woolley and Elias Cooper, as a committee, and their successors, 504 square feet in south-east corner of his home lot, bounded south by home lot late of Dr. Isaac Halsey, deceased. Deed now in possession of Mrs. Wm. T. Jones.

The middle line, separating the Great South and North Divisions, crosses the Sag-Harbor turnpike at the north end of the homestead of Dr. James W. Smith. The line from the East-Hampton bounds to "Millstone swamp path," which is at the land of Hon. H. P. Hedges, (bought of the Ludlows), runs south 80 degrees 30 minutes, west from thence it runs south 71 degrees west. "Davis mill path" is the road running from Towd to house of Col. David R. Rose. Davis mill was on the dam south of Col. Rose's house, and was sold by Tho. Stephens to Jonathan Davis in 1702, (see yellow book of deeds, page 35.) Geo. Harris' close is the land of David R. Rose, north of homestead of Charles Payne, at Towd. The Sag-Harbor turnpike, where it enters the woods at Bridge-Hampton, is at the south end of lot 15. The homestead of Dr. James W. Smith, known as "Lily Pond Cottage," is at the north end of lots 8 and 9. "Tinker's lot," so called, at Scuttle Hole, is at the south end of lot 19. The road from Southampton to North Sea enters the woods at south end of lot 45, west side. The house late of Lewis Jemmings on east side of North Sea road is at the north end of lot 48, east side. The line between the wood land of Capt. Daniel Jagger, (bought of heirs of Nathaniel Pelletreau), and the wood land of Harvey Jagger, divides lots 50 and 51. Lot 41 is north of Lewis Jagger's farm.

Revolutionary Passes.

At a meeting of a quorum of the Committee of Southampton, it was voted that Major Uriah Rogers, Capt. Zophar Cooper, Capt. Elias Pelletreau, Capt. Jeremiah Rogers, Mr. Abraham Cooper and Mr. Henry Herrick, by this Certificate, have our licence to remove their respective families for their safety into any part of Connecticut at their discretion, not absenting themselves, and to hire a boat for that purpose.

Signed by order of the Committee of Southampton.

31 Aug. 1776.

Permit Elias Howell, Jeremiah Jagger and Stephen Stanbrow to pass to and from Long Island with proper stores.

OBADIAH JONES

SIMSBURY, Sept. 4th, 1780.

HARTFORD COUNTY, ss:

These certify whom it may concern, that the bearer, Capt. Elias Pelletreau, now of this town, at the beginning of the present war, removed from Long Island, with his family, consisting of his wife, two sons, and a servant Negro Girl, he set up his trade of a Gold Smith in this town, and has performed his business to universal satisfaction, and is esteemed a judicious Gentleman, and a friend to this and all the American

States, and being now determined to remove with his family into the Town of Saybrook in this State, all persons are desired to permit the said Capt. Pelletreau and his said family to pass on their journey by land or water with their effects without molestation, they behaving well as aforesaid, and that he and they may be treated with kindness and respect according to his character. Recommended by us

JOHN OWEN,
OZIAS PETTIBONE,
Justices of the Peace.

Dr. Silas Halsey, who was for many years Town Clerk, was born Oct. 6, 1743. He practiced medicine in Southampton from 1764 to 1776; fled to Killingworth, Ct., in 1776, where he stayed three years. In 1792 he removed to Ovid, N. Y., and died about 1836. His descendants still reside at Ovid.

IN MEMORIAM.

William Herrick, Esq., was born April 27, 1761, and was elected Town Clerk in 1791, which office he held till 1820. He also held the position of Justice of the Peace, and many other places of honor and trust. He was for many years a teacher in the village school, and is better remembered by the older members of the present generation than any of his contemporaries. On the 5th day of November, 1825, he was on board a sloop on the passage from New-York to Sag-Harbor, and in the cabin with his companions was singing the hymn,

“Teach me the measure of my days,
Thou Maker of my frame.”

Ascending to the deck a few moments after, he was swept overboard by the boom, and perished. His remains were recovered and brought to his native village, where his tombstone may still be seen. Thus died one who left behind him the memory of an upright man, a faithful public officer, and a virtuous citizen.

THE END.

I do hereby certify that I have compared the foregoing copy with the original records, especially the surveys of land, highways, and Indian Lease, contained in the book known as “Liber B, Records of the Town of Southampton,” now in the Clerk’s office of this Town, and that, excepting errata, it is a correct transcript of the same; except that some portions have been abridged, and noted, in all cases, as abstracts, and are correct abstracts thereof.
